HAD MUNCIE ON LAND DEAL LIST

Moving Pictures Figure in Alleged Land Fraud Through Mails.

TWO UNDER ARREST

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 4.—An alleged land fraud, which, according to post-office inspectors, was conducted in several states through the medium of moving picture shows and the United States mails, led to the arrest here today of W. B. Emrich and N. H. Spitzer, of Louisville, Ky., and to their arraignment before a United States commissioner on charges of misuse of the mails.

According to the federal charge tickets were distributed among the spectators at picture shows and the announcement made that the holders of "lucky" numbers would be given deed to a lot in Guernville, Sonoma county, California. It is alleged that the "lucky ones" were then required to pay more for the "filing of papers" than the lots were worth.

Frank E. Sharon, postoffice inspector, who made the arrests, said the same land deal had been operated in Muncie, Ind., Springfield, Ohio, Louisville, Ky., and in several cities in Alabama.

TWO MORE AT DECATUR, ILL.

Decatur, Ill., Dec. 4.—Walker E. Harvev and "Jack" E. Grace, representing the Nassau Realty and Development company, of Chicago, were arrested here today for selling lots in Florida through the distribution of "lucky" tickets at a moving picture theater.

RAIN ADDS TO FLOOD MENACE

Continued Downpour Makes Texas Situation Still More Serious.

FLOODED AREA WIDENS RAPIDLY

San Antonio is Now Hit—Thirteen Lives Lost; Damage High.

Dallas, Texas, Dec. 4.—Rainfall continued today in the flood districts of central Texas, adding to the menace of high waters which already have cost thirteen lives and about $1,000,000 property damage. The area of the overflowing rivers spread rapidly last night, the most important new point affected being San Antonio.

The floods today covered portions of nearly every county from San Antonio northward almost to the Panhandle, and from this point eastward to include all the important cities of north and central Texas. Houston, Beaumont and Galveston alone were not threatened.

Homeless Number Thousands. The homeless numbered thousands, but inasmuch as they were divided in small groups throughout the immense flood territory, no serious relief problems were presented. At Belton part of the town was cut off by water, baskets of provisions were popped on telephone wires to flood victims.

South Boiesque, near Waco, reported that the rise which did not reach there until yesterday, came in a wall of water about ten feet high. The residents had been warned.

Near Marlin, 175 passengers on a Houston & Texas Central railroad train were marooned all night. The flood water rose over the rails until it occasionally lapped the lower steps of the coaches. The Marlin overflow is from the Brazos river bed. It is estimated that the Brazos is ten miles wide at some points. Marlin is 12 miles from the river.

Victims of the Flood. At Waco where several thousand persons were driven from their homes by the Brazos flood, no loss of life had been reported.

The flood victims are as follows: At Belton, five members of the Polk family.

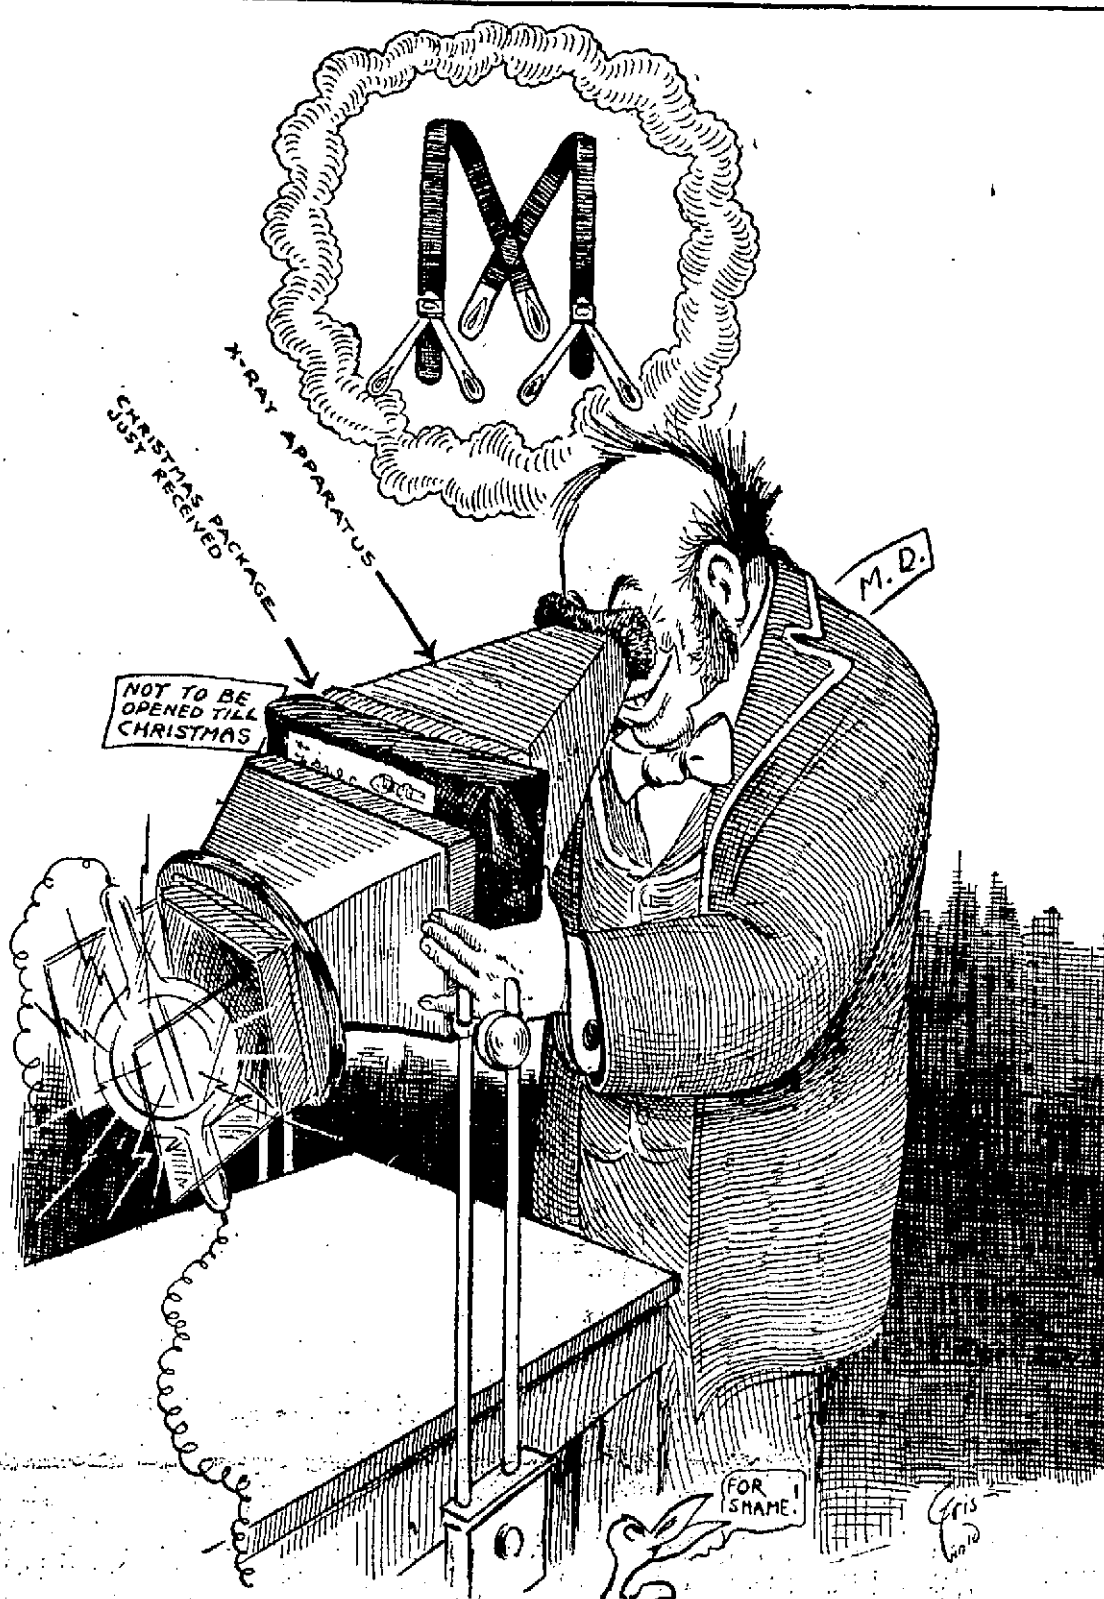

At Brownwood, D. Lyton.
At Dallas, B. F. Lacey.
At Grand Prairie, — Manley.
At Highbank, near Marlin, two negroes.

At Austin, three unidentified men.
At Fort Worth, on the Trinity river, yesterday's apparent relief from flood conditions changed this morning when a dangerous new rise set in.

Flood Now Receding. While rainfall continued in parts of central Texas where high water has taken lives and caused tremendous damage during the last two days, yet the flood now is receding.

FIVE CONCERNS HIT BY FIRE.

Total Loss in Blaze at Cincinnati Estimated at $50,000.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Dec. 4.—Fire which started in the Bennett Seating company's plant on East Pearl street, today damaged that building and the adjoining buildings occupied by the Enterprise company, dealers in enamel and gas supplies, the Lehman-Rosenfeld Extracting company, the D. C. Dom Supply company and the Sheriff Preserve company, causing a total loss estimated at $50,000.

1,200 OHIO BOYS AND GIRLS THERE

Young Experts in Baking and Corn-Growing Reach Washington.

STILL MORE COMING

Washington, Dec. 4.—The vanguard of an army of boys and girls who are doing their share to further the "stay on the farm" movement, have arrived in Washington. The party numbers about 1,200. They came from Ohio, where they won the trip as reward for the excellence of the corn grown by the boys and the baking done by the girls.

Secretary Bryan, who addressed the boys and girls at Continental hall last night, said he was kept busy lecturing to keep a little farm in Kansas running. At the same time he declared that the farm was the future of the young men and that it offered greater opportunities than any other vocation. He went on to say that his Kansas farm was in the nature of a sinking fund and that ultimately he expected to get more out of it than he put in.

Next week, representatives of boys and girls' clubs in other states will reach the national capital on sight seeing trips. There will be a champion runner of boys' corn clubs from each of the southern states and girls' canning clubs from southern, western and northern states and girls' boys' potato clubs in Massachusetts, Ohio, Utah, Iowa and Michigan. Colorado will send a sugar beet boy.

Those who have come from Ohio arrived in six special trains on which there were several hundred friends and relatives, making an excursion of nearly 2,000, who trooped over the public buildings of the city and paid a visit to the tomb of "The Father of His Country," George Washington, at Mt. Vernon.

While here the party will visit President Wilson and Secretary Houston, who will present them with diplomas.

The second delegation of boys and girls will reach Washington Dec. 11.

KANSAS CITY IN BOYCOTT ON EGGS

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 4.—Placing of a boycott on eggs in every home in Kansas City was the announced purpose of a mass meeting of practically all the women's organizations in the city called today by the Kansas City Housewives' league. The women sought to place a ban on the home consumption of eggs.

EMPEROR WILL END THE FIGHT

German Monarch Takes Hand in Bitter Civil-Military Wrangle.

IT HAS BECOME ACUTE

Berlin, Dec. 4.—Emperor William decided today that the time had come for him to interfere personally with the full weight of his authority in order to put an end to the differences between the civil and military authorities of Alsace.

His majesty this morning summoned the governor-general of Alsace-Lorraine, Count Charles von Wedel, and the commanding general, Lieut. General Bertold von Deimling, to report to him immediately at Karlsruhe.

The strife between the military authorities and the civilians in the little region town of Zabern, Alsace, brought about overnight a political crisis of the most acute order in Germany. Demands for the resignation of the imperial chancellor were voiced to-day by the Tagblatt, the Frankfort Gazette and other radical newspapers.

A vote of non-confidence in the German government in connection with its attitude in connection with the troubles between the military and civilians, at Zabern, was adopted in the imperial parliament today by 233 against 54. One blank paper was handed in while 49 members were not present.

The imperial chancellor leaves the capital tonight to make a personal appeal to the Zabern incidents to the emperor at Donaueschingen.

STEADY GAIN IS REPORTED

Hope Hospital Workers Are Very Enthusiastic Over Results.

BUILDING FUND REACHES $39,000

Canvassers Meet at Court House to Discuss the Work.

The campaign for funds with which to clear Hope hospital of its indebtedness and to erect a new hospital building is moving with a rush today and encouraged by reports of generous donations to the fund, the workers are exhibiting increase enthusiasm over the results of their labors in behalf of the institution.

The building fund has now reached nearly $40,000. That sum represents the result of three days' campaigning and by tonight it is hoped that the officials in charge may inform the public that the fund has climbed considerably higher.

Instead of "Help Hope Hospital" buttons the canvassers are tagging the generous public with badges and the proceeds from the sale of these will be used in defraying the incidental expenses of the campaign. Hundreds of people were tagged this morning on the downtown streets, and a report turned in at campaign headquarters informed the clerks that in one hour Mrs. Dr. Gilpin, Mrs. C. S. Bash, Jr., and Mrs. Nathan Levy had raised more than $25 from the sale of tags. Other workers report similar success and within a day or so nearly everybody in the city's business district will have been tagged for Hope hospital's campaign.

A Cheerful Giver. At the same time the pledge of Dr. M. F. Porter, Dr. G. W. McCaskey and Dr. B. P. Weaver for $5,500 was received, one of the lady canvassers on the south side reported the receipt of fifty cents from a young man who had just been let out of employment and is the only support of his mother and two young sisters.

In stating his inability to do more in a financial way the young man detained the canvasser long enough to tell her how grateful he was to Hope hospital for the service it had rendered to a friend of his some years ago.

"I wish I had $100 instead of only 50 cents to give Hope hospital for I know how much it helped my friend."

Opening his purse the young man extracted fifty cents and the canvasser saw that the pocketbook contained only the amount given, a dime and a few pennies.

"Take this," he said. "It isn't much but it is all I can give."

Hold a Meeting. The campaign officials and canvassers held a meeting last night at the as-

NEAR CONSPIRACY, ASSERTS CUMMINS

Iowa Senator Assails the Democratic Caucus on Currency Bill.

NORRIS ALSO FLAYS

Washington, Dec. 4.—Charges by Senator Cummins that the democrats had approached "dangerously near a conspiracy against the rights of all the people" in taking drastic action on the currency bill, marked the opening of today's session of the senate.

"This bill has been considered elsewhere and passed elsewhere," he said. "There will be no real debate in this chamber; it will be simply a farce. I hesitate to participate in it for I do not want to give it, before the country, the color of actual deliberation. I cannot believe the American people will for a long period tolerate this legislation by a caucus."

Senator Lewis, of Illinois, retorted that Senator Cummins had sanctioned similar caucuses' methods while governor of Iowa, but Mr. Cummins denied it.

Senator Owen, defending the democratic caucus action, declared the democrats had adopted the most "direct, efficient and simple way of securing legislation" after congress had for months delayed action. He denounced the extended debate of the Hatch Hatch bill as a "heating of the air with empty words," and a delay of the currency bill.

Republicans declared that democrats were absenting themselves from the chamber and that all addresses were being made to "empty seats."

Senator Norris, republican, declared the situation showed the need of a cloture rule. He attacked the caucus.

"The president of the United States," he said, "read a message to congress the other day. With every fundamental power which he laid down there I am in hearty accord. But under the caucus system I will have no opportunity to assist in framing the measures which should carry out these principles. Practically every senator on this side of the chamber is in a similar position as to some one or more of the president's recommendations."

POLICE EVADE RESCUE POSSE

Arrest of Mrs. Pankhurst Accomplished Without Clash of Arms.

HIGH SEAS PROVE AID TO OFFICERS

Little Motor Boat of Militant Warriors Slow in Reaching Liner.

Plymouth, Eng., Dec. 4.—High seas today helped the police to evade the posse of suffragists who had planned to prevent the rearrest of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, under the provisions of the "cat and mouse act." A heavy sea was running in the harbor when the steamer Majestic anchored, shortly after noon. The waves, while they did not affect the powerful police tug, were too much for the little motor boat which the militant suffragettes had engaged to fend off the policemen. The occupants, who included "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond and other leaders, were drenched to the skin before they reached the liner.

The Majestic, under police orders, had

REBEL CONTROL NEAR COMPLETE

Not Much More to Fight for in Northern Mexico, Says Villa.

WILL DEVELOP PLANS

Juarez, Mex., Dec. 4.—While looting by isolated bands or confiscation of property by the rebels may continue, the days of fighting in northern Mexico are numbered, so far as the present revolution is concerned, according to opinions expressed by rebel leaders today.

Gen. Francisco Villa's assertion that there was not much more to fight for in the north because of the bankruptcy of the federal army, which caused it to evacuate so important a city as Chihuahua has spread among the rebels. What most immediately concerns the so-called constitutional party now, is the elaboration of its civil government.

This embraces a more systematized customs to be enforced along the border. The rebels hold all the important border towns except Nuevo Laredo and Piedras Negras, opposite Eagle Pass. There remains also to be put in force a uniform currency system, for now rebel and federal currency are in conflict, one kind being acceptable in one place and another kind in another. Rebel postage stamps already are in use. Many governors and state officials are to be selected.

Within a short time, the leaders say, a government will be in operation in the northern half of the country which will be entirely independent of that at Mexico City. The settlement of the civil questions is one reason why Villa has asked Gen. Carranza to meet him at Chihuahua. Sylvester Terrazas, a newspaper editor in Chihuahua, who is not related to the wealthy Terrazas family, has been selected for governor of the state. Villa expects to leave Carranza the task of establishing civil government, devoting himself to the military campaign southward toward Mexico City.

WILL BE CONVENIENT

There are lots of people who want to subscribe to Christmas funds to make little boys and girls happy, but who have not the time to visit a central point to make donations.

In order to make it convenient for people of this class cards will be placed in stores in all sections of the city and the proprietors will be authorized to receive money to be distributed through The Sentinel and the Empress theatre.

There are also lots of people who can not afford to give large amounts, but who are more than anxious to contribute sums within their means. Their charity is just as commendable as that of people who can and do give in big lumps and it is hoped by the new scheme to present to these the opportunity to help.

Each poor boy and girl will receive a Christmas package suitable to his or her age and will see a big show free of cost. Every cent will be gratefully received and duly acknowledged and it is hoped that the minds of persons of limited means and with ability only to subscribe small sums.

Manager Harry Cruik of the Empress, picked out a big Christmas tree at the Clark Fruit company's store yesterday and had it laid away. As soon as the proprietors of the store found out it was to be used for the entertainment of children whose parents cannot afford presents it was donated to the cause and is waiting to be transferred and decorated.

MEXICAN WAR VETERAN GAVE FIRST DOLLAR TO HOPE HOSPITAL FUND AND SOLD THE FIRST BADGE ON STREET.

Sentinel Staff Photo.

William Curran, 1220 West Washington boulevard, gave the first dollar toward the "Help Hope Hospital" fund and today volunteered his services in the cause and sold the first of the badges that were put on the street. L. A. Worch had just walked up to Washington boulevard and Calhoun street and was taking a survey when Mr. Curran landed him for the first sale.

Mr. Curran was eighty-one years old on August 10 of this year, and served in company D, Ninth infantry, in the Mexican war. He was honorably discharged at Jefferson barracks on July 25, 1849.

AGAIN ON ALMOST A NORMAL BASIS

Indianapolis is Resuming Business on Fourth Day of Strike.

ORDER IS RESTORED

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 4.—Business conditions were resumed on almost a normal basis today, the fourth day of the strike of the teamsters' and chauffeurs' union. Practically all team owners had at least a part of their forces in operation.

In view of Mayor Wallace's statement last night that "there is no reason why business should not be conducted as usual" and that the police department is "fully prepared to protect any one who desires to resume business," a number of department stores and other firms which have not attempted to make any deliveries this week, began preparations to resume their service today.

No interference with wagons or automobile trucks had been reported early today.

The ministers' committee, which began an investigation of the strike late yesterday, continued its hearings today. It proposes to publish its findings as soon as the hearings are concluded.

It was announced by the union this morning that only 125 team owners, employing about 800 men, had signed the tentative agreement submitted yesterday by the union officials. The list did not include any of the large employers.

Commission Opens Hearing.

The public utilities commission of Indiana had its first hearing in the controversy between the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal company, which operates the local street railway system, and its employees. The hearings probably will continue three weeks, but must be completed within thirty days, by the terms of the contract signed Nov. 7, under which the men returned to work after being on strike for a week. The decision of the commission will be binding for three years.

Of the twenty-three grievances, which make up the list submitted by the employees the demand for recognition of the union probably will be the hardest fought on each side. The company, in its brief, filed an answer to each of the grievances. Other demands include increase in wages, shorter hours and better working conditions. The high cost of living, it is said, will figure prominently in the hearing. M. L. Clawson, attorney for the employees, it is understood, will ask for a physical valuation of the company's property on the ground that such valuation is necessary to determine the right of the men to demand an increase in wages.

Thomas J. Farrell, general organizer of the teamsters' union, announced just before the union meeting this afternoon that he would recommend that teamsters, employed by owners who have signed an agreement to pay the union wage scale and not discriminate against union men be permitted to return to work. Farrell said employers of 1,500 men had signed the agreement. This is denied by the Team Owners' association. Such action was requested of Farrell earlier in the week by a committee of the Central Labor union, but then he declined to recommend the action until he said he could return 1,500 men to work.

POLICE EVADE RESCUE POSSE

anchored outside the breakwater. The sea delayed the little suffragette warship so much that it did not arrive at the side of the big liner until the police were leading Mrs. Pankhurst down the gangway.

Shout Through Megaphones.

The militants shouted to her through their megaphones. "Don't land. The cause is after you," Mrs. Pankhurst protested against her arrest and asked to see the warrant. It was explained to her that no warrant was necessary. At her request, Mrs. Child Dorr, an American suffragist, was permitted to accompany her.

Six policemen and a wardress boarded the steamer to prevent any of the passengers interfering with the officers delegated to make the actual arrest. In the meantime the ordinary travelers, on which were many suffragists armed with clubs, was kept standing off and the armed bodyguard was rendered helpless. Bodies of suffragettes were on guard outside all the prisons in the southwest of England to which it was thought Mrs. Pankhurst might be taken.

During the night, at Bristol, the women who took sentry duty in relays outside the jails, were attacked by a hostile crowd and several people were hurt in the struggle.

Landed Without Incident.

The police tug with the prisoner and officers on board steamed off directly for Devonport. Everybody except officials was excluded from the government dock yard and Mrs. Pankhurst was landed without incident.

Two motor cars were waiting in the dock yard and the small party, consisting of the prisoner and a number of detectives, entered the vehicles and started immediately in the direction of London.

A body of militant suffragettes had congregated in the meantime in Plymouth and after parading the streets with a band at their head marched to the docks.

Change Welcome to Protest.

The militant suffragists of London who had arranged a great demonstration to welcome Mrs. Pankhurst, arranged today to turn it into a meeting of protest. At the militant suffragist headquarters threats of vengeance against the authorities were heard when it was learned Mrs. Pankhurst's captors had ended the rescue part at Plymouth. A large body of women who had planned to greet their leader at the Paddington terminal of the Great Western railway on her arrival in London, met and expressed their indignation at her arrest.

IS LODGED IN JAIL.

Officers Change Route Suddenly and Meet No Obstruction.

Exeter, Eng., Dec. 4.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, was lodged today in Exeter jail. The police who arrested her on board the Majestic on her arrival, outwitted the women sympathizers who had been watching to resist her arrest. After she and the officers landed from a tug at a dock on the Tamar river, they started off in the direction of London, but afterward changed their route and made direct for this city and reached their destination without encountering any obstruction.

until the present retail price of 40 cents is reduced. Mrs. Willard Q. Church, president of the local housewives' league, was chairman of the mass meeting.

"The National Housewives' league," said Mrs. Church at the opening of the meeting, "has recommended that the Kansas City branch establish a retail quotation of 32 cents for the best storage eggs. In order to get this price I shall move that an official boycott on the product be declared. There are practically no strictly fresh eggs obtainable in Kansas City and the present price of 40 cents is entirely too much for the consumer to pay."

CHICAGO PUPILS JOIN IT.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—Pupils in the public schools have joined Chicago women club members in the egg boycott, by which it is hoped to reduce the price of eggs to thirty-two cents a dozen. No-egg pledges were distributed among the pupils in the Fiske school yesterday. It is said there were many signers and that more pledges will be circulated today in other schools of the city. There was a drop of one cent in the price of eggs on the Chicago butter and egg board yesterday.

GOING UP AT PITTSBURG.

Pittsburg, Dec. 4.—In the face of the fact that agents of the department of justice are here to investigate the cause of the high price of eggs, quotations for "selected eggs," as the Pittsburg butter and egg exchange terms them, were advanced today from 45 and 46 cents to 50 and 52 cents a dozen. Dealers declare this is because eggs, to bear the name of select, must be more than a week old. Alleged price fixing by the butter and egg government is one of the things the exchange's agents is investigating.

GOOD CHEF GREAT ARTIST.

Pleads Guilty to Immigration Law Violation; Asks Leniency.

New York, Dec. 4.—John Milton, head chef at the Ritz-Carlton hotel, was today fined $3,000 for violating the immigration law by bringing three assistants here under contract from France. Milton pleaded guilty and asked for leniency on ground that a good chef was as great an artist in his profession as a famous singer was in grand opera.

HEAVY NIGHT FOR BOARD OF WORKS

Big Program With Hearings on Sixteen Streets Up for Pavement.

THE MUNICIPAL NEWS

The board of works faces one of the heaviest night's work it has had to go through for a long time. There will be up for confirmation resolutions to pave sixteen streets upon which resident property owners have petitioned for improvements and upon a number of these there will be remonstrances. It is expected that a great crowd of interested property owners will be present to be heard and when the session will be ended is wholly problematical.

Those who are actively interested in procuring signatures in opposition to the confirmation of these paving improvements have been very diligent for several weeks and have crystallized considerable hostility to the resolutions. Members of the board stated today that they were very much interested in finding out what persons who had originally signed petitions for pavements were now lined up against the projects.

There will be a big remonstrance against the resolution for eliminating the jog at the southeast corner of Taylor street and Broadway. The assessments will be against property from the Pennsylvania railroad to Huestis avenue on Broadway and a large number of these are objecting. They hold that the improvement should be paid for out of the city's general fund and not by the property owners, as it is in the interest of the general welfare and will not specially benefit the resident property owners. The prospect is that the resolution will be killed by remonstrance.

The Program for Tonight.

The program for tonight's session of the board includes the following: Assessment rolls to be confirmed—For cement sidewalks on the west side of Harrison street, Superior to St. Mary's; ornamental lamp posts on Wayne, Washington and Jefferson streets, Harrison to Clinton; paving Calhoun street, Wildwood to Rudisill; cement sidewalks on both sides of Monroe street, Berry to Washington; traction company's portion of the paving on Broadway, Scott avenue to the Bluffton road; sidewalks on the east side of Delta boulevard, Columbia to Lake; sidewalks on the south side of Oak street, Division to Ohio.

Resolutions to be confirmed—For vacating the first alley west of Spy Run avenue, Randolph to first alley south; for eliminating the jog at the southeast corner of Broadway and Taylor; main sewer resolutions providing for the installation of two pumping stations in Lakeside; paving Putnam street, Harrison to Jesse; paving Harrison street, First to Putnam; paving Sherman street, High to Archer; paving High street, St. Mary's to Runyon; paving Berry street, Rockhill to College; paving Wagner street, Spy Run avenue to a point 300 feet east of Hanna; paving Francis street, Erie to Hayden; paving Eliza street, Gar to Winter; paving Hayden street, Hanna to Anthony; paving Creighton avenue, Calhoun to Lafayette; paving Oliver street, Fair to Eckart; paving Taylor street, Fairfield to Broadway; paving Hoagland avenue, DeWald to Leith; paving Miller street, Calhoun to Hoagland; paving South Wayne avenue, Organ to Rudisill; paving Huestis avenue, Fox to Miner; paving alley between Jefferson and Madison, from Barr to Lafayette.

NORTHERNERS HAVE MEETING.

Civic Improvement Association Has Session in Bloomington School.

Properly owners directly interested in the opening of Sherman street were told last night by a committee appointed to investigate that the proposed opening of Sherman street will cost approximately $8,200. A tentative assessment roll of benefits and damages was presented by Messrs. C. J. Steiss, chairman of the committee. Official action will have to be taken by the board of works and the committee's work, performed upon suggestion by the board was to give the property owners an idea of what the cost will be.

The meeting last night was held in the Bloomington school and was the regular monthly assembly of the North Side Civic Improvement association. The committee that has been in charge of the proposal for the opening of Barthold street was discharged and a new one will be appointed by President Flagle.

A committee of which William A. Beyer, Herman Witte and Henry D. Miller are the members was appointed to lay before the board of works tonight a proposal that the condition of Wells street at the Lake Erie railroad crossing be improved. Mud and water to a depth of six inches are frequent at the crossing and the filthy state of the thoroughfare is objected to. The same committee will ask that the Barthold street be strengthened.

Councilman-elect Peter A. Reischel, of the Ninth ward, was made chairman of a committee to promote a movement for street car extensions on the north side.

The association will next meet the first Wednesday evening in January.

FINISH BROADWAY SATURDAY.

West Side Will Be Thrown Open Sunday or Monday.

The state of the grade separation work at Broadway and the Wabash track indicates that the entire job will be completed by Saturday evening. The west side of the street will be thrown open to traffic Sunday or Monday, but the east side will not be put in commission for perhaps a week later. The Modeling Construction company will hardly consent to turn the work over to the city until it has been given time to thoroughly season and a week will be required for the newer work. The street was closed to traffic last August and at that time it was not believed it would be possible to complete more than the west half of the street before cold weather should intervene. However, the fall season has been uncommonly favorable to outdoor work and the entire job—the biggest single grade separation undertaken in the city—is practically completed and within a week or ten days will be out of the way.

tically completed and within a week or ten days will be out of the way.

SUBWAY SIDEWALK GOING FAST.

The reconstruction of the west sidewalk in the Calhoun street subway is progressing rapidly and will be completed early in the coming week. The high iron railing is almost in place and the balance of the work will go with much speed. As soon as the west walk is completed the east walk will be rebuilt. The improvement will eliminate what was a situation of many dangers to pedestrians.

WABASH COMPLETES SIDEWALK.

The sidewalk along the north side of Grand street from Calhoun to Harrison in front of the new Wabash passenger station was completed today and workmen are putting the finishing touches on other portions of the depot grounds. The open place at the corner of Grand and Calhoun has been sodded.

MAKING FINAL INSPECTION.

Mayor Jesse Grace and Messrs. J. C. Hutzell, Marion Johnson and W. D. Henderson, of the board of safety, are this afternoon making a final inspection of the eight fire department houses and their equipment. This is the last inspection of the department houses that will be made under the present administration.

be married. She admitted that they had discussed that subject, but she said there was no engagement.

Miss Fleming lives at Avon, Ind., and is a cousin of Stephen B. Fleming, of Fort Wayne, who is a member of the Indiana state senate.

Was Regular in Calls.

The witness testified that she had known Craig for seventeen years, she had first met him in Indianapolis when she was employed there as a stenographer. Later she moved to a farm near Avon, Ind., where she lives with her mother, and for the past three years, she said, Dr. Craig had been visiting her regularly.

"How often has Dr. Craig visited you?"

"Nearly every Sunday."

"When did you see him last?"

"About two weeks ago."

"Didn't you see him in a car at Indianapolis a few days before the beginning of the trial?"

"No, I don't think so."

"Are you sure?"

"I believe I did see him at the station last Friday week when I went to Fort Wayne to visit my sister."

Ephraim Inman, counsel for the state, asked the witness whether she had talked to Dr. Craig since he had made his opening statement in the case on Monday.

She said she did not remember. She admitted, when pressed to search her memory carefully, that she had talked to Craig over the telephone either Monday night or Tuesday night.

"You say you were not engaged to be married?" said Mr. Inman. "Is it not a fact that you had prepared your troussau when this trouble came up?"

"No, that is not true," replied Miss Fleming.

The Visit to Fort Wayne.

Mr. Inman asked why she had gone to Fort Wayne on the eve of the trial, and the witness said she had not seen her sister for a long time. She denied that she had known that she was wanted as a witness until last Monday, when she was served with a subpoena.

"Has anybody ever advised you to stay away from this trial, or to avoid a subpoena?" asked Henry N. Spain on cross examination.

"No," replied the witness. The court sustained the defense's objection to the introduction of the subpoena hearing a notation of the sheriff of Hendricks county. Mr. Inman announced that his purpose in offering the subpoena was to impeach the witness.

Miss Fleming gave her age as 42. She is small in stature and rather handsome. Her dark hair is streaked with gray. She was plainly very nervous and answered the questions through trembling lips.

She Saw a Peep.

A man was seen peeping into the windows of Dr. Helene Knabe's apartment on no less than twenty nights in July and August, 1911, according to the testimony of Mrs. J. M. Smith today at the trial of Dr. Wm. B. Craig for the murder of Dr. Knabe. Mrs. Smith said the man wore dark clothes and a crush hat, but she was unable to identify him further. The state hoped to be able to show that this man was Dr. Craig and that the alleged action was one of his manifestations of jealousy.

Mrs. Smith lived on the opposite side of the street and from her seat on the front porch of her home she said she had an unobstructed view of the windows of Dr. Knabe's flat on the ground floor. The espionage occurred usually, she said, between 11 and 12 o'clock at night. After it had gone on for nearly a month, she reported the matter to the police, then the man came no more.

The state expects to rest its case in the trial of Dr. Wm. B. Craig tomorrow at noon.

Before beginning the introduction of witnesses the defense will ask the court to instruct the jury to dismiss the case.

Annual bazaar and supper at the Third Presbyterian church, Friday night, beginning at 4 o'clock. Supper served cafeteria style between 6 and 8.

TO KEEP THE POT A-BOILING SOON

Salvation Army is Ready to Begin Xmas Work on Saturday

TO HELP CITY'S POOR

The Salvation army's annual Christmas slogan, "Keep the Pot-a-Boiling," will be heard in Fort Wayne's business district next Saturday when the first of the Christmas pots will be stationed at prominent street corners. Announcement is made today that for the first week only three pots will be put out, but within two weeks every street corner in the downtown district will have its Christmas pot and each will be in charge of some representative of the Salvation army, attired in the customary Santa Claus garb.

The money received each year by the Salvation army from the Christmas work goes in providing dinners for the city's poor people. If, after baskets of provisions have been given to all who apply, there is any fund remaining, it is used in winter relief work. Last year one hundred and twenty well filled baskets were given to the poor and needy citizens.

"No, that is not true," replied Miss Fleming.

"Are you sure?"

"I believe I did see him at the station last Friday week when I went to Fort Wayne to visit my sister."

Ephraim Inman, counsel for the state, asked the witness whether she had talked to Dr. Craig since he had made his opening statement in the case on Monday.

She said she did not remember. She admitted, when pressed to search her memory carefully, that she had talked to Craig over the telephone either Monday night or Tuesday night.

"You say you were not engaged to be married?" said Mr. Inman. "Is it not a fact that you had prepared your troussau when this trouble came up?"

"No, that is not true," replied Miss Fleming.

The RED CROSS SOCIETY

Has, Beyond all Doubt, Done More for the Alleviation of Human Suffering Than Any Other Organization, and Ought to Have the Support of Every Person who Has the Welfare of Humanity at Heart.

The wonderful results that they have been able to accomplish could only have been secured by co-operation.

The United Specialists, long ago, realized that in the treatment of chronic and deep-seated diseases; little could be expected from individual effort; and working along the lines of co-operation have succeeded in perfecting methods of treatment that has almost revolutionized the old, antiquated ideas. In fact they have succeeded in curing many cases that would, otherwise have been doomed to a life of misery and suffering—if not to the grave, itself. They make no claims, whatever, to any super-natural ability. The wonderful results they have obtained, and which have been many times proven by their numerous testimonials that have been published in these columns, are simply the result of the combined effort of a number of highly trained specialists working in harmony with each other; and as their interests are identical, they are willing and glad to give to the organization the results of their experience—for what ever helps one, helps the others, and all this is for the benefit of the afflicted. Thus anyone can readily see what a great advantage it is to anyone who is so unfortunate as to be suffering from any diseases that these doctors treat. You not only get the co-operative experience of all these specialists, but the cost of the treatment is even less than is usually charged by the regular physician, who has only himself to rely upon.

They treat most all chronic and nervous diseases, including Rheumatism, Jaundice, Eruptive, Pityriasis, Stomach, Liver and Bowel Trouble, Anemia, Catarrhal conditions, and Special diseases of both men and women. Their wonderful method of placing the medicine directly within the blood stream, has proved truly remarkable in the treatment of Tuberculosis and other diseases of a general constitutional character. Their institution is located at 124 East Washington St. Their hours are 9-12; 1-5 and 7-8. Sundays 9-12 only.—Adv.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

FATAL ACCIDENT

AT LINN GROVE

Caught in Machinery at Plant of Erie Stone Company and His Body is Crushed.

Decatur, Ind., Dec. 4.—Ralph Myers, aged 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Myers, residing one mile north of Linn Grove, was almost instantly killed at the plant of the Erie Stone company, formerly the Mesberger stone quarry, just north of town, along the Wabash river.

The unfortunate young man had been employed at the plant during the season, which would have closed today, and the force of help was engaged in cleaning up about the plant, preparatory to shutting down, when the accident occurred. Between the elevator and a stone bin in the crusher is a very narrow space and in it a line shaft is located. The space between is said to be not more than a foot. Young Myers wanted a shovel that was on the opposite side of the bin, and instead of going around it to get the tool he attempted to pass through the narrow space between the elevator and the bin. On the line shaft there was a set screw that protruded an inch or more, and this in some manner caught in his clothing in a way that he was wound up by it and thrown between the line shaft and stone bin and his right arm broken. He was dead when found and such was the nature of his injuries that it is thought that death was almost instantaneous.

FIFTY-SIX INDICTMENTS.

Bluffton, Ind., Dec. 4.—A batch of fifty-six indictments has just been returned by the Wells county grand jury, after a two weeks' session. This is the largest number of true bills handed down at one session for a long time. Most of them are believed to be for violations of the liquor laws. Bench warrants are being issued and arrests will be made as rapidly as possible.

VETERAN AGENT TO RETIRE.

Portland, Ind., Dec. 4.—L. L. Gilpin, veteran express agent with the United States Express company in this city, will retire from the service this week, having resigned. John H. Seiss will succeed him. Mr. Gilpin was the first agent of the company in this city, entering the service on August 1, 1874. Aside from eleven years, eight of which he served as recorder of Jay county, he has served the company continuously.

The Quickest, Simplest Cough Remedy

Easily and Cheaply Made at Home. Saves You $2.

This plan makes a pint of cough syrup—enough to last a family a long time. You couldn't buy as much or as good cough syrup for $2.50. Simple as it is, it gives almost instant relief and usually conquers an ordinary cough in 24 hours. This is partly due to the fact that it is slightly laxative, stimulates the appetite, and has an excellent tonic effect. It is pleasant to take—children like it. An excellent remedy, too, for whooping cough, spasmodic croup and bronchial asthma.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. Pinex is one of the oldest and best known remedial agents for the throat membranes. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in quaiaccol and other natural healing elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.

The prompt results from this mixture have endeared it to thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully. A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

DID NOT MIND WOMEN'S SCREAMS.

Wabash Burglar Cuts Telephone Wire, Ransacks House and Gets Lunch.

Wabash, Ind., Dec. 4.—For two hours Mrs. C. S. Millard, wife of the superintendent of the Michigan division of the Big Four, and her maid, were lacerated in the former's bedroom while a burglar leisurely ransacked the dwelling. Shortly after midnight Mrs. Millard was awakened by a slight stir in her room and, opening her eyes, saw a man with a flashlight standing near her bed. She screamed and the intruder slowly walked down stairs.

Mrs. Millard then called the maid and an attempt was made to summon help by the telephone, but the instrument had been put out of commission. For the next three hours the two remained behind locked doors while they listened to the burglar prepare a lunch, which he ate after which he visited all the rooms of the residence in his hunt for valuables.

Mr. Millard is temporarily in charge of the Chicago division of the Big Four, with headquarters at Indianapolis.

BIG REVIVAL CLOSURE.

Evangelistic Effort in Whitley County Very Successful.

Columbia City, Ind., Dec. 4.—Rev. J. P. Warner, of Fostoria, Ohio, an evangelist of note, has just closed a successful revival at Sand Bank M. E. church, in Jefferson township, Whitley county. He was ably assisted by the pastor, Rev. F. P. Johnson, of Coesse. There were many conversions and on Tuesday evening there were baptismal services and several were admitted to full church membership. The services awakened wide interest and the church was filled nightly. Rev. Mr. Warner goes from Coesse to Valentine, Lagrange county.

ACCUSES HIS WIFE.

Bluffton, Ind., Dec. 4.—Harry Deam, a young barber employed in Bluffton shops, has filed suit for divorce from Louise Deam on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. He also alleges that they separated on June 10, 1913. Mr. Deam alleges that his wife frequently got cards and letters from former admirers and that she kept them secret from him. He alleges that on one occasion he found hidden in a bed a letter which she had written to a former admirer and placed there. It is further alleged that the defendant on one or two occasions left their six-month-old baby to the care of others and went to Fort Wayne, staying until a late hour, and that she occasioned the plaintiff great distress by returning home and relating that she had been attending picture shows in company with other men. Mrs. Deam was formerly a Fort Wayne girl.

COST $50 TO CHEAT WOMAN.

Huntington, Ind., Dec. 4.—The first conviction under the city weights and measures ordinance was obtained by City Sealer D. S. Austin before a jury in Squire C. W. Stults' court. Aden Wiley, a huckster, accused of overweighing a chicken sold to Mrs. Charles Regan, East Franklin street, was found guilty by the jury of twelve men and fined $30 and costs, amounting in all to over $50. The jury debated over the matter only about thirty minutes. Mr. Wiley sold Mrs. Regan the chicken and charged her fifty cents for it, vowing it weighed four pounds. The woman reported the matter to Mr. Austin and he found it weighed but three pounds, five and one-half ounces. He had Mr. Wiley arrested.

STRUCK AND HURT BY ROCK.

Bluffton, Ind., Dec. 4.—Carl Groh, employed by the Erie Stone company at their quarry north of town, was struck by a falling stone while feeding the rock crusher. He was rendered unconscious and but for the quick work of his fellow workmen, who grabbed his clothing, he would have fallen into the crusher and been ground to death.

EVANGELISTIC TABERNACLE.

Bluffton, Ind., Dec. 4.—The tabernacle which will be used in connection with the union meetings planned for the month of January under the leadership of Bob Jones, will be erected on the vacant lot east of the Grand opera house and interurban station. The lot is the property of the Union Traction company and permission was secured today from the officials of the company for the erection of the tabernacle. The tabernacle will be here in a short time from Warsaw, where Rev. Mr. Jones and his workers have been conducting meetings, and it will be erected by a volunteer corps of laymen from the different churches of the city.

NARROWLY ESCAPED DROWNING.

Grubill, Ind., Dec. 4.—Joseph Conrad and family, of Leo, came very near being drowned while fording the St. Joe river at that place. Evidently they were guided by a boat on the opposite bank, but because of the intense darkness of the night, they lost the direction, as the boat had been moved from its usual location that day, thereby leading them off the usual route into deep water. Upon being nearly submerged their horse was brought to a standstill, and Mr. Conrad and family, with the aid of a boat, succeeded in safely landing the family on the shore from their perilous position, after which the horse and buggy were brought to shore.

EVANGELIST CAN SHOOT SOME.

Columbia City, Ind., Dec. 4.—Rev. Charles Sigman, who hails from North Carolina, and who is conducting a series of revival meetings at the Baptist church in this city, was one of a hunting party that consisted of himself and Walter Elismann, of the postoffice, and Wm. A. Braddock, of the east end grocery. They secured a bunch of rabbits on the Braddock farm in Thorncreek township and the minister shot seven out of nine bunnies that jumped from the covert. His aim was so good that when a pair of twins jumped from the brush, they fell by the wayside as soon as his gun cracked. His efforts at the Baptist church in the revival meetings have been well attended, and he has a good presence.

ROAD PROJECT IS KILLED.

Columbia City, Ind., Dec. 4.—The December session of the Whitley county commissioners closed Wednesday afternoon with one decision that is of interest to the people of Chubbuck and vicinity, who have been raving about the Lincoln highway, and it resulted in the James M. Dillendorfer et al. petition for a stone highway being finally wiped off the map. Attorney George W. Kichter appeared for the petitioners, and the petition was dismissed at his suggestion, and the costs are to be paid by the petitioners in thirty days. Eighty people are interested in the case, and are ceding to the decision of the commissioners, they are to pay the costs within one month, or an order will be issued to Sheriff Egolf to make the collection forthwith.

COLUMBIA CITY HAS CURFEW.

Columbia City, Ind., Dec. 4.—The curfew regulation has been re-established in this city and its operation began last night. The youngsters will have to obey the warning of the fire whistle at 8 o'clock each night this winter according to orders issued by Mayor B. J. Bloom. The kids have been cutting up too much lately, and all those under the age of fourteen years, unless accompanied by their parents, will be given a tough of the "boy scout" movement. The curfew law has been enforced in various other cities, and the young lads and lasses will have to take a trip to the calaboose, if they do not obey.

MOTHER OF FOURTEEN DIES.

Montpelier, Ind., Dec. 4.—Mrs. Samuel McCluny, 58, mother of fourteen children, twelve of whom are living, died of Bright's disease at her home in Montpelier. The funeral was held today at 1 o'clock from the Friends' church in Keystone, in charge of Rev. W. A. Popejoy. The surviving children are Mrs. Myrtle Lesseig, of Chicago; Mrs. Maude Ault, Montpelier; Mrs. May Lockett, Dallas, Tex.; Howard A. McCluny, Bartlesville, Okla.; Lyman E. McCluny, Indianapolis; Mrs. W. H. Malone, Olney, Ill.; Lola McCluny, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Claudine Carr, Montpelier; Mrs. Grechen Nussbaum, Keystone; Mrs. Gurney Walburn, Montpelier; Trevor McCluny, living at home.

GAS HURTS COAL DEALERS.

Hartford City, Ind., Dec. 4.—Natural gas now being supplied in this city has affected the business of the coal dealers. The advancing price of coal and the comparatively cheap gas with its added advantages is destined to make further inroads on the business of anthracite and bituminous merchants. Many residents are burning the new fuel in kitchen ranges and base burners and not a few are giving it a trial in their furnaces. As soon as consumers become convinced through the experience of others, that the fuel is practical, the number of gas patrons will no doubt multiply rapidly.

WRECKER FATALLY HURT.

Huntington, Ind., Dec. 4.—Emery Teller, a member of the local Erie wrecking crew, was probably fatally injured on Wednesday when he was pinned beneath a heavy locomotive truck. The accident occurred at Newton, a small station about thirty miles west of Huntington. The injured man was brought here and taken to the hospital. The local wrecking derick and the crew was taken to Newton Wednesday to pick up a locomotive that had turned turtle Tuesday when the soft road bed under a recently constructed track gave way.

PICKPOCKETS ON TROLLEYS.

Warsaw, Ind., Dec. 4.—Warsaw people who are compelled to patronize the Northern Indiana railway to Elkhart, Mishawaka and South Bend, are warned that pickpockets are operating on the interurban cars of the company, entering and leaving South Bend. A number of passengers have reported losses. Miss Steffey, a stenographer of Goshen, enroute home from South Bend, reported a valuable purse, which contained but sixty cents, missing yesterday. Mrs. Henry W. Wilner was robbed of her purse containing a sum of money. The purse was carried inside a hang bag. She found the hand bag open and the purse gone.

KILLED AT INDIANA HARBOR.

Brimfield, Ind., Dec. 4.—The funeral of Donaldson Taggart, aged 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Taggart, of this place, was held here today. He was killed on Thanksgiving day in the rolling mills at Indiana Harbor and it was not until Tuesday that his remains were identified. His father was notified that the dead man might be his son and he went up to the Lake county manufacturing city and readily identified the remains, returning here Wednesday with the body. The young man left Brimfield a year ago and since then his parents knew nothing of his whereabouts until notified of his death.

DROPS DEAD CLIMBING FENCE.

Goshen, Ind., Dec. 4.—John Yoder, 50, a farmer living six miles east of Goshen in Clinton township, dropped dead as he was en route to the farm of Samuel Chupp, east of Goshen, to cut wood. When seized with a fatal attack of heart disease, Yoder was about to climb a fence at the orchard of Oscar Zook, five and one-half miles east of the city on the Lincoln avenue road. A few minutes later his dead body was discovered by Mrs. Volney Rogers, living in the neighborhood, who rode along the highway in a wagon.

APPOINTMENTS ARE SLATED.

Hartford City, Ind., Dec. 4.—Former Marshal Henry Sleppy is said to be slated for appointment by Mayor-elect T. C. Neal, of Montpelier, for that office. To succeed Dan Davis, blacksmith pugilist, who is now swinging the club, Sleppy served as marshal during the oil boom days. William Reynolds, it is rumored, will take Officer Dragoon's place as night policeman. The mayor probably will also appoint an advisory board of six men and six women to assist him in the solution of civic and moral questions.

MANY WANT ROAD JOB.

Hartford City, Ind., Dec. 4.—The position of county superintendent of highways, a juicy political plum to be handed out by the board of commissioners at its January meeting, promises to be sought after by a large number of democrats. Among those who are said to be seeking the appointment are John Gailbury, Charles Kelsay, Charles Clamm, Lawrence Daugherty, David Meelick, John Trant and William Harley.

CHECKING COUNTY OFFICERS.

Decatur, Ind., Dec. 4.—F. D. Hainbaugh, of Alunee, has arrived here as a representative of the state board of accountants, to begin checking up the officers of Auditor Baltzell and Treasurer Yager. He will be assisted in the work by Mark Tague, of Angola. Mr. Tague had not arrived when Mr. Hainbaugh reached the city and his companion was waiting his arrival to begin their work.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READ-ING.

II Corin. 13:1-18.

1. Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?
2. We are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men;
3. Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.
4. And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:
5. Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;
6. Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.
7. But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance which glory was to be done away:
8. How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?
9. For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.
10. For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.
11. For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.
12. Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:
13. And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:
14. But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.
15. But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.
16. Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.
17. Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
18. But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

Indiana's Mineral Output

Some interesting figures bearing on Indiana's mineral output for 1912, have just been given out by the United States geological survey. These statistics show that this state last year produced minerals to the value of $42,239,193, an increase of nearly $5,000,000 compared with $37,430,187, the production of 1911. The 1912 figures, however, do not include the value of the pig iron produced in the state, which was more than $17,000,000. The principal products of the state are coal, clay, cement and stone, these having a value of 90 per cent. of the total output.

In the production of coal, which is the state's principal mineral product, Indiana ranked seventh in 1912, with an output amounting to 15,285,718 short tons, valued at $17,480,546. The value of the clay products was $7,935,251, and the value of the Portland cement $7,237,591.

In 1912 Indiana was the third largest coke-producing state, the output having increased from a little over 900,000 short tons, valued at $3,600,000 in 1911, to 2,616,339 short tons, valued at $12,528,685 in 1912.

The value of the natural gas product decreased from $1,192,418 in 1911 to $1,014,295 in 1912, and the output of petroleum also decreased from 1,695,289 barrels, valued at $1,228,835 to 970,000 barrels, valued at $885,975. The sand and gravel beds yield products worth over $1,000,000 annually, the value of the output being $1,175,370 in 1912, and $1,133,829 in 1911.

The necessity for such improvement in our financial situation as will permanently establish confidence is given renewed emphasis in the report of Secretary McAdoo, of the treasury department, just made to congress. The secretary is firmly of the opinion that the one thing most needful in the currency problem is assurance of opportunity to secure at all times the necessary funds and credits to meet the expanding needs of the commerce and industry of the country. With that once established, the periodical panic should become an extinct institution in this country.

Almost without exception commission men who deal in potatoes unite in denying the charge made by the secretary of the Irish board of agriculture to the effect that speculators in the United States are now engineering a corner in the "spud" market. In order to make the alibi complete, also, they are placing the blame at the door of the potato grower who is holding back his stock in storage for higher prices.

As the equal suffragists see it, President Wilson can atone for failing to recognize the movement in his annual message only by at once sending to congress a special message urging the ballot for women. It must be admitted that with the splendid organization at Washington voicing a constantly-growing sentiment for equality in ballot rights, the president is face to face with something of a problem.

In one of the sworn statements of campaign expenses just filed at Terre Haute appears an item of $660 for "hauling sick and infirm" voters to the polls at the recent city election. The magnitude of the bill would seem to indicate a most distressing state of health at Terre Haute that ought to be given early attention.

DIRECT PRIMARIES.

(New York Times.)

There is a curious notion abroad that all the evils of business, which is another name for politics, can be done away with by what are known as direct primaries. The essence of the new plan is that the voters shall select candidates for all offices by a spontaneous act and not through one or more grades of representative delegates.

It has happened in the past, when the latter system was in use, that men whose business is politics, who make more or less money by rubbing and minute attention to this calling, have got themselves made delegates, or, by the use of stratagems and spoils, have influenced delegates, controlled nominations, carried elections and fattened accordingly. The new thought is that these unworthy schemers would be helped in the presence of the great mass of voters of any one party armed with the power to say directly who shall be named for all the offices. And the business politicians have lent a certain plausibility to this pleasing doctrine by opposing it. As they are assumed to know their interests, the apostles of direct primaries take this opposition as evidence that this opposition would, in practice, bring the business politicians to grief.

We think it is a very dangerous assumption. The politicians fight any new plan because they are used to the old one and would prefer to go on with it. But if the new one were adopted, we may be sure that they would not go out of business. On the contrary, they would devote all their energy, shrewdness and all their resources to make the new plan serve their ends. And they would not have a very hard job. It would take a good deal of money, much hard work, and a thorough organization. All these the politicians could provide not merely for one year or one election, but all the time. If they are to be downed and kept down the same means would have to be used by their opponents, who would not and could not make a business of their opposition. The odds would all be on the side of the professionals.

The source of the evils of business is not in the machinery of politics. It is chiefly in the frequency of elections and the enormous number and absurd variety of places to be filled by election. For each of these offices there are from two to a half dozen candidates and for each nomination as candidate there are from half a dozen to a score of aspirants. By such an overwhelming mass of choices to be made the average voter is reduced to a state of stupefied bewilderment, and in this condition he is in the hands of the politicians as clay in the hands of the potter. The only way to restore him to a state of reasonable independence and self-possession is to give him, at the longest practicable intervals, the right of choosing the smallest practicable number of responsible officers. Armed with this right, he would defy the business politicians, use his own judgment, and serve his own interests. It is this change and no other that the professionals have any reason to fear. And the reform would work as surely in nominations as in elections. Men would have an adequate motive for needed activity and the means of accomplishing a desired end. Anything short of this, we may be sure, the politicians would "beat."

DRY ROT IN POLITICS.

(Kansas City Star.)

For eight years Brand Whitlock served as mayor of Toledo, running each time as an independent. He was the successor of "Golden Rule" Jones, who had been repeatedly elected mayor under the same conditions. This year Mr. Whitlock refused to be a candidate for re-election and the city solicitor became the candidate of the group that previously had backed the independent movement. Still another independent candidate was put in the field, with the result that the regular republican candidate was elected. The Whitlock city solicitor ran a poor third.

A curious pattering out of a strong movement for good government, do you say? But it was not curious, but natural.

Trustworthy accounts from Toledo agree that the movement's vitality had declined. As a writer in the Outlook put the case, "It had lost its former idealism and become a political party, the rank and file of which had aspirations no higher than or different from those supporting the regular parties."

That is the weakness with a political party in city affairs. If it is successful it attracts the professional politicians who gradually take possession of it merely for the sake of the offices. There is no way to keep them out.

To keep its vitality, to make it represent the ideals of the community, a good government movement ought to be newly organized each campaign. Every two years there should be a fusion of all forces interested in city progress. This would attract men of all parties, and would discourage the professional politicians.

Fusion is the best antidote to political dry rot.

Has Long Catalogue of Ills and Good Roll of Missing Money.

NEWS OF THE POLICE

"Sure, now, judge, you ain't going to do that to me. Your honor, you can't do it, can you?"

"O, yes, I can and I am, John. You've got too much the matter with you. We'll just lay you up for a little while and restore your health."

John Dailey, a floater, made the protest in the city court today. He was arrested by Officer Jim Smith for being drunk and begging. Dailey was so full of talk he could not keep his seat nor bridle his tongue while court formalities were proceeding, and he had the court in a rather noisy state of confusion while his affair pended. Dailey said he came to town with $33 of good money, bought a drink for an old stomach trouble, bought another for a weakness of the knees, bought another for a pain in his ankles and bought another because he had wet feet. Then he lost track of matters in general and his $33 in particular. He was trying to recoup his tumbled fortunes when Officer Smith got him. Judge Mungovan continued his case for a week to get him straightened out.

In Record Time.

It took but thirty seconds for Officer Paul to tell what sort of a drunken, dirty rat George Thomas is, for Thomas by his manner in court to prove it and for Judge Mungovan to send him over for fifteen days. Thomas, who came here from Huntington yesterday, was drunk on Main street and around the interurban terminal station begging money and cursing persons who turned him down.

Other City Court Cases.

Tom Wadsworth and Ed Bragge, loiterers, were turned loose, and John Ross, a tough hobo who was just "makin' a jump from N'Yawk to Chi, see," was held for a week.

Henry Northley, arrested by Nickel Plate officers for train climbing, was sent on his way, and John Smith, who broke into the police station for a "flop" and was arrested for lugging in a souse, was told to get out of town, while Henry Stewart, Andy Dailey and John Hicks, whose true name is Harry Fernwald, drunks, were allowed to go.

The cases against Joe and Louis Erle, charged with loitering and are suspected of larceny, were continued until Saturday and their bonds of $200 each were continued.

Benjamin Wartell, the well known jewelry dealer at 1318 Calhoun street, has just closed a deal whereby he has leased the building at 928 Calhoun street, formerly occupied by Woods & Co., next to the Packard Piano store, for the next ten years.

Mr. Wartell has been in business in Fort Wayne for the last six years and his business has grown so rapidly that it made it necessary to seek larger quarters. The new store, which will open on or about January the first, will be known as the "Diamond House," as nothing but diamond jewelry will be kept in stock. The building will be equipped with the latest and most up-to-date fixtures.

The deal has just been made after Mr.

CALLS CONDITION SHAMEFUL.

Boston, Dec. 4.—"Every one of those places should be closed," declared Mayor Fitzgerald after he had completed early today a tour of several hours among cheap lodging houses conducted along the lines of the Arcadia, where 28 men were killed in yesterday morning's fire.

"The conditions," continued the mayor, "are shameful. It is the duty of society to care for these unfortunates who are forced to seek such places for their lodging."

"Today I am going to have a conference with the building commissioner and the corporation counsel and see if something cannot be done to safeguard the lives of men who have to spend their nights in such places. I shall suggest the erection of model lodging houses by the city or state."

AT THE MAJESTIC.

Anna Pavlova and Symphony Orchestra Saturday.

Anna Pavlova, who will be at the Majestic next Saturday evening is far more celebrated now than when she was in this country three years ago and the public everywhere went wild over her dancing. Her fame has mounted in Europe since then, great as it was before, and in England, where she has spent the greater part of her time, she has created a craze for the ballet. In England Pavlova is distinguished as a great artist, the greatest in her line, and she received the recognition, public and social, that Great Britain gives to persons who do big things. She is looked upon as having performed a genuine public service in reawakening a general interest in the dance, and she moves in the highest society in the land. This year in New York Pavlova has, with her company, "re-lived" her loftiest previous achievements, as the New York World said on November 4, last. Pavlova and her company were a sensation in other cities three years ago. This year Fort Wayne sees an organization which is a super-sensation.

"The Garden of Allah" Coming for One Week.

"The Garden of Allah" will be the attraction at the Majestic soon. The play is a dramatization of the novel of that name by Robert Hichens. Mary Anderson Navarre is co-author of the play. As everybody knows, "Our Mary" has been from childhood a devout member of the Roman Catholic church, and it is due to her belief that Hichens' great story, "The Garden of Allah," contained a powerful argument for the sacredness of monastic vows and their ringing call to the soul to leave the joys of the flesh and return to the cloistered spiritual solitude of the monastery, that after nine years of thoughtful work, "The Garden of Allah" was placed upon the stage. Mr. George C. Tyler, general manager of the Liebler company enterprises, added his entreaties for a dramatization of the novel, and finally Mr. Hichens had no choice but to request Mme. de Navarre to make a scenario for the play, in the writing and staging of which she has largely assisted.

As to the result—well, "The Garden of Allah" is a paradise for adherents to the Catholic faith. It breathes the atmosphere of Catholicity amid the glaring sands and purple shadows of sun-kissed Africa, and as a theological appeal it has provoked endless discussion as to the claim of monastic vows over those of the marriage rite. A witty French dramatist once defined a great play as one which successfully justified a man or woman in ignoring a marriage vow. In that respect and in one other "The Garden of Allah" is a great play. The hero is justified in returning to his monastery, and the scenery is sufficient excuse for the tumults of surprise and applause with which the play is received. The stage has never seen such a succession of marvels as are shown in "The Garden of Allah."

AT THE TEMPLE

A bill of real class opens at the Temple theater this afternoon, and from all indications record breaking crowds will attend the Temple for the rest of the week. Al Lewis & Co., in "The New Leader," headlines the bill. Nearly every critic in the east, where "The New Leader" has been headlining in all the big Keith houses, has called it vaudeville's funniest sketch and it is sure to be a hit here. Knight Bros. and Savatelli, one of the cleverest troupes in vaudeville, will be seen in the funny skit, "The Fellow With the Green Umbrella." The Marshes, "The Silent Duke and the Beau Brummel," come direct from the Orpheum circuit, where they have been a headliner, and Laypo and Benjamin, Hebrew comedy acrobats, who have just returned from Europe, and Elma Gardner, the charming little comedienne, complete the bill.

AT THE EMPRESS

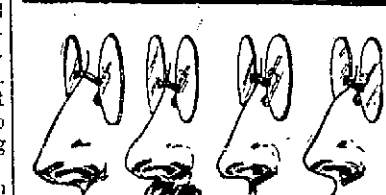

There is every indication that the tango dancing contest on the stage of the Empress theater Friday night will bring out at least a half dozen couples in the contest. Every morning from 11 until 12 o'clock the stage is crowded with dancers, taking instructions in this newest of dance crazes, and many are rapidly becoming proficient. The audience on Friday night will be permitted to decide the winners and to this couple will be presented ten dollars in gold. The contest is a novel one, different from anything in the amateur line ever held, and the demand for seats already indicates capacity business.

Saturday afternoon the famous Roscoe Midgels will assist in the distribution of toys to the little folks attending the matinee. Every boy and girl will receive a present from the hands of these wonderful Lilliputians. The Roscoes enjoy an affair of this sort and enter into the spirit of the fun. This week's big bill has become the talk of the town, for it contains seven features unexcelled anywhere.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR CONVENTION

City Ready to Welcome State Y. M. C. A. Delegates Tomorrow.

HERE THREE DAYS

Preparations were practically completed this afternoon for the forty-fourth annual convention of the Indiana Young Men's Christian association, which convenes at the First Baptist church Friday afternoon with an opening address by Henry M. Dowling, vice-chairman of the state executive committee. At a meeting of the local committee on arrangements at the Anthony hotel Wednesday it was made plain that unusual interest is being taken in the three-day session. Efforts of the committee on entertainment have not relaxed, however, as the full quota of Fort Wayne homes necessary for the accommodation of the delegates has not yet been reached.

Dinner Invitations.

Chairman Charles H. Worden, of the dinner committee, received today almost a hundred acceptances of invitations to that function from business men and delegates from different parts of the state. This will be one of the events of the entire convention and will be largely attended, according to present indications. President Kessinger, of the Indiana association will preside. Mr. Frank C. Ball, donor of $150,000 to the new Muncie association, will speak on the general subject, "Our Most Valuable Assets," and Mr. A. W. Johnston, general manager of the Nickel Plate railroad at Cleveland, will make a talk on "The Association, a Great Safety Factor." In addition there will be an illustrated talk by State Secretary E. E. Stacy, of Indianapolis, on "Indiana's New Buildings and Activities."

Another feature of the convention which is attracting wide interest is the boys' dinner, Saturday evening at the First Methodist church. This is under the supervision of Edwin T. Jackson, scout commissioner, and preparations are being made for 400 boys, to be seated at the dinner tables in relays of 200 each. After the dinner the boys will hear a stirring address by Ernest L. Mogge, general secretary of the Evansville association. The same speaker is scheduled to address the women's meeting, which will be held at 4:30 Sunday afternoon at the Plymouth Congregational church under the auspices of the religious work committee of the Young Woman's Christian association.

Mr. Mogge, who will act as special convention secretary for the state committee, arrived in Fort Wayne this afternoon. State Secretary Stacy will arrive tonight and other members of the state force at Indianapolis are due here tomorrow morning. An air of preparedness was given the city last night when the big convention banner was strung across Calhoun street. Large posters have been placed in the display windows of stores and business houses and tied to the trolleys and light poles.

Arrival of Delegates.

Delegates will begin to arrive tomorrow morning. They will be registered at convention headquarters in the First Baptist church and shown to their places of entertainment in the city by boy scouts, who are to act as pages during the convention. There will be a large number of student delegates, it is expected, among whom will be the Culver military squad of delegates—the hand-somest boys in the state—wearing their gray uniforms.

A special dinner and conference is planned for the student delegates this year, according to the official program issued in pamphlet form today. Instead of attending the business men's dinner the student delegates will dine at the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ and listen to talks by Charles S. Hayes, of Hillsdale, Mich., and State Secretary A. H. Ludwig, of Columbus, O. Dr. Thomas C. Howe, president of Butler college, will be chairman of this meeting.

Special emphasis is being laid upon the importance and significance of the Saturday afternoon meeting at the First Baptist church, when J. Campbell White, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Missionary Movement, will deliver his forceful address on "The Compelling Challenge of the Present World Situation." Mr. White was for ten years an association secretary in Calcutta, India, and he is said to have a remarkable knowledge and understanding of present world-wide tendencies, especially those of a religious character. This meeting will be open to the public and the local committee on arrangements extends an invitation to the public to attend.

Following several automobile excursions about the city for delegates who arrive early tomorrow, noon shop meetings will be held at more than a dozen railroad and industrial shops. These will be in charge of two experts, "Jim" Burwick, of the Duluth & Iron Range railroad, and A. B. Minear, of Chicago, railroad secretary of the International committee. "Jim" Burwick spends his summers in railroad work as a conductor, but when the winter sets in he "hits the trail" and turns evangelist among his railroad brethren. He expects to remain here two weeks to conduct meetings. Mr. Minear, who will be here during the entire convention period, is one of the most prominent association workers in the world. He was selected by President Roosevelt to go to the Panama canal and establish the most successful association work ever conducted in the tropics. During his four years on the canal Mr. Minear organized seven associations that cared for the social, physical and religious needs of the army of more than 5,000 American workmen. The entire cost of the work, including the erection of several buildings, was met by government appropriation.

WHITMAN CAMPS ON THEIR TRAIL

Asks Grand Jury to Indict
McLean and Hasset in New York.

GRAFT IS ALLEGED

New York, Dec. 4.—District Attorney Whitman went before the grand jury today to ask for the indictment of Arthur A. McLean, treasurer of the democratic state committee and Thomas Hasset, a former employee of the state engineer's office. He was prepared to present evidence intended to show that McLean accepted campaign contributions from corporations and that Hasset solicited a bribe as a condition to expedite a payment on public highway contract.

District Attorney Whitman submitted some of the testimony relative to alleged highway graft as adduced recently at the John Doe inquiry. It was said that indictments were expected this week.

Three men in particular are concerned in the testimony. They are Everett Fowler, of Kingston, already indicted for extortion in getting a campaign contribution from a contractor; Arthur A. McLean, treasurer of the democratic state committee, alleged to have received checks from corporations as campaign contributions, and Thomas Hasset, formerly attached to the state engineer's office. Madison Aldrich, a Poughkeepsie contractor, swore on the stand on Monday that he had paid Hasset $1,500 to expedite a payment due him (Aldrich) from the state.

WILL SEEK TO BAR WOMEN.

Challenge Right to Sit as Judges and Clerks in Elections.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—The right of women to sit as judges and clerks of elections here next spring will be challenged, it was made known today from both republican and democratic sources. A taxpayer probably will go into court and start injunction proceedings on the ground that bond issues or other propositions submitted at the spring election might be invalidated. One objection brought forward is that the law says judges and clerks must be men of good character.

ARMY ENGINEERS COMING DEC. 19

River Flood Board Will Examine Local Plans on That Day.

EIGHT WILL BE HERE

City Engineer Frank M. Randall today received a letter from Capt. Harold C. Fiske, of the corps of engineers and secretary of the board of officers on river floods, stating that the army board will visit Fort Wayne on December 19 to examine the local situation and the plans that Engineer Randall and Engineer A. W. Grosvenor have prepared for flood prevention.

The letter, written from Pittsburgh the 3d inst., says:

"At the meeting of the board of officers in Cincinnati Tuesday it was decided to hold a meeting of the board in Fort Wayne at 10 a. m., December 19. I would request that you make the necessary arrangements for the board to present plans and visit such parts of the river front as you deem advisable. The board will meet at the city hall, unless you prefer some other place."

"It would greatly facilitate matters if each member of the board could be supplied with a copy of the blue prints showing the proposed improvements and other matters relating to the subject. If you have authentic copies of this information (eight copies preferably) kindly send them to me as soon as convenient and I will distribute them to the members of the board."

"HAROLD C. FISKE,
"Captain Corps of Engineers,
"Secretary Board of Officers on River Floods."

Engineer Randall stated today that it would be impossible to supply the copies asked for. There are some sixty prints of the plans. He has written Senator Stephen B. Fleming, chairman of the local committee on flood prevention, advising him of the coming of the engineers. If Mr. Fleming cannot be here on that day, Sub-Chairman L. C. Rockhill will preside over the committee. Meanwhile the committee will be obliged to make arrangements for the visitors.

EGGS TAKE SLIGHT DROP.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—The egg market declined 2 and 3 cents today, although receipts showed a falling off. Ordinary firsts were quoted at 31 and 32 cents wholesale.

RUSH TO SIGN GIRL'S BOND.

Bail in Sum of $1,000 Quickly Obtained from Indiana Men.

Logansport, Ind., Dec. 4.—"Can you give bond?" asked Judge Clifford yesterday.

"Sure, she can," shouted several men before Miss Mabel Blumer, held to the grand jury on the charge of receiving stolen goods, had time to reply.

Then there was a rush near the door of the courtroom.

"That is enough," said the judge, when two signatures had been affixed to the bond, waving back the other men. The accused girl smiled. Previously she had pleaded not guilty to the charge of acting as a "fence" for Mrs. Albert Tillotson, under arrest on the charge of shoplifting.

Miss Blumer comes from Lafayette. Several Purdue students were in the crowd that offered bail.

PRENDERGAST QUILTS PARTY.

Founder of Progressives Announces His Withdrawal from Ranks.

New York, Dec. 4.—Wm. A. Prendergast, comptroller of New York, formally announced his withdrawal today from the progressive party which he helped to found. "I consider," his statement says, "that the result of the presidential election made it evident that the third party idea was not acceptable to the American people and that the continuation of a third party movement could have no other effect than the permanent success of the democratic party."

"I believe there must come an amalgamation of interests upon the part of republicans and progressives."

Mr. Prendergast said he still believed in progressive principles although he is out of sympathy with the course of the party.

M'ADOO NOT DISTURBED.

Suit to Test Income Tax Law Gives Secretary No Worry.

Washington, Dec. 4.—Secretary McAdoo is not disturbed by the suit filed in Chicago to test the constitutionality of the income tax. The tax will be collected while suits are pending, and should the supreme court decide against the law the money could be returned.

A warning to taxable persons that the excise must be paid irrespective of lawsuits to test its validity, probably will be issued soon by the treasury department. When the corporation tax law became effective its constitutionality was tried in the courts, but the government collected the tax just the same.

OWES $95,000; HAS $108.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—Voluntary petition in bankruptcy scheduling liabilities of $95,651 and assets of $108, was filed here today by William H. Cullen, a theatrical manager. Richard Carl and the estate of Richard Mansfield are among the creditors.

HOWARD SWAIN TO THE PENITENTIARY

Judge Eggeman Warns Fathers Who Neglect Children of Law's Wrath.

NEWS OF THE COURTS

"Through you, here and now, I want to warn all fathers like you that if they are proved in this court to have been guilty of deserting their children or of neglecting to provide for them that they will be sent to prison. You and such as you are guilty of one of the most infamous of crimes. I want the people of this community to know and understand that conviction in this court of such a crime most surely will mean the penalty."

Judge John W. Eggeman made this pronouncement in the circuit court today when he sentenced Howard Swain to serve from one to eight years in the state prison at Michigan City for neglecting his six children. Swain begged for one more chance and Judge Eggeman said to him:

"You already have had three chances before Judge Muirgovan in the city court. You were not sent to this tribunal to be dealt with until all other means had failed. You paid no attention to the chances you had. I want it understood that men like you cannot trifle with this court. I can do nothing for you."

Swain's offense presented peculiar aggravations. He is the father of six children ranging in age from ten months to ten years. He has persistently neglected them. Two months ago Judge Eggeman took the four eldest of the children and placed them in the Allen county orphan's home, where they are being well cared for. The mother has the two youngest and is doing the best she can to support them.

Husband Hard to Please.

In a divorce complaint filed in the superior court Margaret A. Ries says her husband, Edward J. Ries, has been brutal and inhuman in his treatment of her and among other things has charged her with not wanting to hear children, although she has borne four since her marriage to him in 1900. She says he has falsely accused her of relations with other men and has talked profanely and abusively to her, asserting that he is not the father of one of her children. She asks for $3,000 alimony, $400 she says she loaned him and the custody of the four children. An order to prevent him from disposing of his property was issued.

Railway Takes Change.

The suit of Elsie M. Burger, administratrix of the estate of Ira G. Burger, against the Pennsylvania railroad for $35,000 damages, has been sent to the Wells circuit court for trial on a change of venue moved by the defendant. Ira G. Burger was an engineer and had charge of one of the two locomotives that were pulling the east-bound Pennsylvania special when it was wrecked at Swinney park on the evening of August 13, 1911. The complaint sets out that Engineer Burger was not familiar with the west division of the road and had asked for a pilot, which the railway management failed to provide. The complaint is in two paragraphs, one demanding $25,000 damages and the other $10,000 damages.

Says Hubby is Pretty Bad.

In her divorce complaint to the circuit court Grace Johanna Bley says her husband, Louis Daniel Bley, to whom she was wed in 1902, never has been a good husband and an ample provider, but what drove her to the divorce courts is that during the past few months he has been neglecting his marriage vows and seeking the charms of other women. The couple have two young children whose custody the plaintiff asks for and she also wants $200 alimony.

Minnie Lawson Fined Again.

After hearing the testimony against Minnie Lawson, charged with keeping a house of ill-fame, Judge Eggeman fined her $10 and costs. The case went to the circuit court on appeal from the city court.

Minor News of the Courts.

John M. Richmond has commenced suit in the circuit court against S. Bash & Company to recover $125 on a check given him by the defendant and which he says he lost. The defendant has refused, says the complaint, to issue another check.

The will of the late William Brennehan has been ordered probated by the circuit court. He leaves all his estate, real and personal, to his wife, Catherine, and names her executrix.

The case of William A. Tschumy vs. Charles A. Spanley has been sent to the Huntington circuit court on a change of venue from the Allen superior court.

The will of the late William Kessens, ordered probated today in the circuit court, leaves all his property, real and personal, to his wife, Elizabeth, enjoying upon her the absolute condition that she do not on any account whatsoever become security for any of their children.

The will of the late William V. Douglass was filed for probate today and it leaves the entire estate, real and personal, to his wife, Caroline S. Douglass.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Perfectly Good Milk Was Smeared All Over Gay Street.

When a horse driven by Henry D. Korte became frightened this morning and ran away on Gay street, that thoroughfare was deluged with the contents of four large cans of perfectly good milk, and the horse ran into a hedge fence and was badly injured.

Mr. Korte had procured the milk from farmers and it was to have been bottled for city customers. The four cans tumbled from his wagon and for a time Gay street was a real milky way.

SOUTH BEND OUT TO SECURE TEAM

Passing the Hat and Trying Time-worn Scheme of Ticket Selling.

HOLDING AN OPTION.

South Bend, Ind., Dec. 4.—"Nothing definite was accomplished but the baseball outlook here is regarded as very bright," was the result announced by men who attended the seasonal meeting in the chamber of commerce. Men connected with local baseball for many years, more closely in 1912, including George Hahn and George Hull, conferred with a committee appointed by President Weber, of the chamber of commerce.

The next step, one of the baseball men said, is to secure some individual or individuals who are willing to purchase a franchise, preferably the Three League franchise, on which George Hahn has an option. This is taken to mean that the chamber of commerce will undertake to push the sale of season tickets proposed by Hahn and others. There are several South Bend moneyed persons who are supposed to have announced their willingness to buy 500 tickets are sold.

That South Bend offers rich ground for the re-sowing of baseball seeds of enthusiasm is the inevitable result of the fertilizing effect of one year without the game, say the workers. They point to Evansville, represented by a hopelessly tail-end club which the management made practically no effort to strengthen, where the attendance was second to that at Grand Rapids, home of the pennant winners, as an example.

That the South Bend public demands baseball goes without saying. The advantages of the coming year are plentiful. It is declared, with a 100 per cent. better street car system and the co-operation of the league of Springfield park, Dailey, almost perfect accommodations will be afforded the fans. Improvements of the playing field and stands are contemplated.

The prospect of curtailment of other amusements on Sunday is expected to add to the attraction of baseball the coming year.

Some definite developments are scheduled for the first of next week. It is said, and it is reasonable to suppose, that within a few weeks South Bend will be able to take her place with other cities of her class and discuss the managerial and financial question from the angles of local connection with the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues.

DAUBERT GETS A
PHENOM IN CUBA

Discovers Short Stop and Expects Him to Startle National.

SAYS HE'S A WONDER

New York, Dec. 4.—If a deal that Jake Daubert, captain of the Dodgers, has on the fire goes through, the fans of Brooklyn will see J. Carlsbe Smith fighting to hold his job at third base.

The Brooklyn under the leadership of Daubert, are now in Cuba playing a series of games with the Havana, the Almendares and the Fes. A young fellow, Gonzalez by name, has been doing such wonderful work for the Havana that Daubert has offered $3,000 for his release to Brooklyn. He believes the young Cuban will make one of the greatest infielders in the world. During the season, which is now at its height in Havana, Gonzalez has batted better than .400 and covers almost as much ground as Arthur Devlin did in his palmy days.

Daubert had the young fellow practically signed before he learned that Wilbert Robinson had become manager of the club, but that has not stopped his efforts. He promises to turn the wonderful Gonzalez over to Bobby in the spring. It is said that Daubert has also made an offer for Tomahawk, an infielder of the Almendares.

The Brooklyn club is having a tough time beating their Cuban opponents. They were shut out two games in succession, in one of which Mendez, the famous Black Diamond of Cuba, let them down with one hit. This same Mendez three years ago shut the Detroit Tigers out without a hit for five innings. And, mind you, Ty Cobb was in the line-up.

A few years ago Mendez was considered the most remarkable pitcher in the world, but on account of being a black man had no chance of getting into major leagues. When the Giants visited Cuba McGraw said that if Mendez had been white he would have given $50,000 for him. The wonderful black went to play two years ago but it was thought he would never be able to pitch again, but it appears that he has come back.

Pope Conte, one of the Cuban baseball writers, who is in town, says that the Brooklyn players have just heard of Robinson's appointment as manager, are delighted. Most of them have known Bobby for years and know that he has the ability to lead them.

McGraw's new pitcher, Palermo, who was signed in Cuba, is also taking part in the games against the Superbas, and the reports are that he is doing wonderful work. Palermo is a giant left-hander and is 23 years old. Fans will easily mistake him for an Irishman. He has light hair, blue eyes and a broad complexion. He was awarded the medal for being the best amateur pitcher in Cuba while a student at the high school. Palermo will report to the Giants in Marlin.

UNTIL RITCHIE AND WELCH BOX A DECISIVE BOUT THERE WILL BE NO WORLD CHAMPION LIGHTWEIGHT.

(By Tom Andrews.)

Is Willie Ritchie lightweight champion of the world? Not to my way of thinking. He is champion of America, winning that title when he beat Al Wolgast, Nov. 28, 1912, on a foul, at Daly City, Cal., in sixteen rounds.

Fred Welsh is champion of Great Britain by virtue of his defeat of Matt Wells two weeks before Ritchie beat Wolgast. Welsh is also champion of Australia because he defeated Champion Hughie McEwan in England. Thus Welsh has two crowns against Ritchie's one. Also Welsh has a decision over Ritchie in a twenty-round bout at Los Angeles, although it must be conceded that Ritchie look that fight on one day's notice and could not prepare for a hard battle. Also Welsh's victory was not by a very great margin.

Ritchie's long vacation while on his theatrical tour caused much talk, and he was being "panned" especially after the trouble over his match with Welsh in Vancouver, which was advertised "for the world's title."

Willie silenced this criticism by his wonderful fight with Leach Cross. He proved he is not champion by chance, but a real lightweight boss, and one the fans may be proud of.

Ritchie defeated Cross at his own game slugging. And over the ten-round route Cross is one of the hardest men in the world to defeat. Now the critics accept Ritchie as a champion who can carry their money, although they would prefer to see him in action more often over the twenty-round route.

Will Ritchie raise the lightweight limit to 135 pounds? We hear he will kick it to 135 pounds, and judging from the weight for the Tommy Murphy fight—135 at 5 o'clock—he has started in. Packey WeFerland wanted a match at 135 pounds at 5 o'clock, but Willie served notice it would have to be 135 ringside.

Looking through the records it is that Jack McAllister, in 133 pounds ringside, but when he met Jim Carney, of England, he insisted on 132 pounds eight hours before the fight. He met Billy Myer at 135 ringside and Jimmy Carroll at 137. He fought Harry Glinne at 133, and Myer the second time at 139.

George Lavigne when champion fought Dick Burke in England, and the weight was 138, but when the "Kid" met Ernie it was 128. It remained at 133 except in the Ernie-Gins case, when it went to 126. Since then Nelson, Wolgast, and Ritchie have held it at 133 ringside, but now the bars are again down and it looks like 135.

This makes the English scale look better than ever as a whole, and it will not be surprising to see an American union organized and adopting the English weight.

To be world's champion Ritchie must defeat Welsh, who certainly has claim to recognition.

Ritchie is fighting Murphy for the title, but I believe there are three boys who can give him a lesson. They are Jim Duffy, the Buffalo lightweight; Pat Brown, of Minnesota, now in Australia, and Sam Robideau, the naval lightweight, now in Philadelphia. There are others in the division, including Charlie White, Cross, Frank Russell and Sapper O'Neill, of England. Ritchie may remain champion for some time, but he will find a hardy bunch to dispose of before he has clear sailing.

WILLARD IS NOT PROBABLE CHAMP

New York Critics Do Not Think Much of His Milling.

HOOTED BY CROWD

New York, Dec. 4.—Until big Jess Willard learns to fight he will not be in line for the heavyweight championship of the world. This is the concrete opinion given out by critics today who witnessed his performance last night when he met Carl Morris for his first eastern appearance of any importance.

He is unfinished, and although Tom Jones has been working hard with him he has not developed to any great extent and was not much better than his opponent, who has never been seriously regarded in the heavy division.

Willard whipped Morris in Madison Square garden last night in a ten round glove battle but the affair made the crowd groan in anguish. It was a burlesque from a boxing point of view and neither knew the fine points of the ring game. There is no reason to doubt that the big fellows tried their level best, but that wasn't much, to say the least.

The difference that was apparent was Willard's ability to hit with some degree of accuracy while Morris seemed to forget all about the knack of landing his blows. Both men frequently broke the rules against holding. Willard was the chief offender in this respect, but Morris offset him by butting with the top of his head. Referee John warned them repeatedly for these foul tactics, but allowed the battle to go the limit. Instead of a rip-roaring war the affair was a rough wrestling mixup a greater part of the way.

The spectators had been led to expect something better and they hooted and hissed at the end of a majority of the rounds.

Willard's best punch was a right hand swing which shook Morris repeatedly and finally made his left jaw swell to an alarming degree. Morris was game and willing, but he was outpointed by a wide margin. His showing was a bitter disappointment to those who had backed him to win on the strength of his battle with "Gus" Smith.

As for Willard, he did nothing to warrant the belief that he is a championship possibility. He lacked aggressiveness and failed to take advantage of his opponent who was latter was in distress.

At the ringside Willard scaled 235½ pounds and Morris 234½. Jim Flynn, George Rodol and Jim Coffey challenged the winner.

JOHNSON MISSED

Didn't Care So Much But Wanted to Greet Loyal Friends.

THEY FLOCK AT DOOR

Weiser, Idaho, Dec. 4.—Walter Johnson, indomitable twister of Washington's crew, missed a short time ago the tribute that would have warmed the cockles of his heart more than any other when a "previous engagement" prevented his attendance at a small moving picture show here. Advertised in advance by an enterprising manager, Johnson appeared in the "movies" in the act of the reeling from the admiring Washington fans a huge silver loving cup stuffed with currency. Here in the little town where he had made his initial appearance in semi-professional—almost "town lot"—ball the same ardent fans who worshipped him then gathered in the film theater and cheered themselves hoarse when the first views they had seen of their celebrity since he abandoned the bush for his real career were shown.

The manager of the little show shop advertised the Nationals' twister in movies for only a single evening. Half an hour before the doors of the theater were to open there was a line of Johnson's old friends before the ticket window. The line grew. By the time the operator was ready to start his machine the street in front of the house was jammed with twice as many patrons as the seating capacity could accommodate.

All were there—men and women—crowded, crammed and standing in the inadequate space of the theater. Young men who were in knee pants when Johnson's fame was purely local, girls at whose admiring glances he used to blush, and who have since become wives and mothers; men who had affectionately called him Walt as they slapped him on the back in admiration and encouragement a few years ago, the mistress of his troupe hearing house, some of his teammates—all were there. It was a turnout of the town's population. The coming of President Wilson, the sudden appearance of a sea monster, could have attracted no greater crowd.

THE DISCOVERY OF A SIMPLE RECIPE HAS BROUGHT A FORTUNE

A recipe was made by a singer who had suffered for years with severe indigestion, and by the help of a celebrated French doctor, who had told him of a vegetable with marvelous digestive properties, this vegetable was used in a sauce which the singer added to his food and in the cooking. Carloads of Waw-Waw have now been sent to different parts of the world, and in every place it has had a phenomenal success. The best cooks in Europe pronounced the sauce unexcelled. It adds a zest and piquancy when used in the cooking and with soups, salads, hot and cold meats and fish which is unequalled, and at the same time one feels one can digest anything. Waw-Waw (an obsolete South American Indian word for vegetable) is a purely vegetable sauce and contains no raw spices and is guaranteed absolutely pure. Waw-Waw is unlike all other sauces and although it resembles a Worcestershire, yet the ingredients used are quite different. It costs very little to try this wonderful Waw-Waw, which is now to be found in the principal hotels, railroads and homes in America. A 25 cent bottle will convince you how much more you will enjoy your food by adding Waw-Waw and how easily you will digest your food.

WHIPPING POST DOESN'T STOP IT

Delaware Practice Not a Deterrent of Crime, Says Montana Member.

TALKS OF LASHINGS

By Gilson Gardner.

Washington, Dec. 4. "The news of still another whipping--this time a white man--at the Newcastle county workhouse in Delaware, indicates to me that the whipping post has not the deterrent effect upon crime that is claimed by its supporters," said Representative Evans, of Montana, today, discussing the whipping post during a session of the Senate.

"Governor Miller, of Delaware, in a published interview, stated that 'the whipping post has eliminated the criminal gangster from Delaware.' In my mail this morning I received a marked copy of a morning newspaper published at Wilmington, Del., where the Newcastle workhouse is located, and on a single page of that paper ten stories of crime appear. Out of a total of thirty-two items on that page, about one-third are stories of crime. 'Gunsman Fires Twice in Crowded Street,' 'Loot Summer Cottage,' 'Accuse Two of Larceny,' 'James Davis, Fugitive, Killed Following Attempt to Make Third Attack on Negroes,' 'Girl Attacked--Two Negro Boys Waylaid,' 'Miss Anna Underhill,' these are a few of the headlines. The last named outrage occurred within one-quarter of a mile of the whipping post itself, notwithstanding the statement made by Representative Brockson, of Delaware, in the floor of the house, that the whipping post was a deterrent to criminals.

"I am confirmed in this belief," continued Mr. Evans, "by Mr. Julian Leavitt, chairman of the prison labor committee of the National Consumers' league, one of the foremost experts in the country, who has recently published two widely read series of articles on prisons and convict labor in the American Magazine and Pearson's Magazine. In Mr. Leavitt's opinion, Delaware is one of the worst of the convict labor states, and is annually contributing an unknown, but certainly large number of criminals to the population of the neighboring states."

The protest of Representative Evans against the whipping post in Delaware has received vigorous endorsement from the National Consumers' league, through the chairman of its prison labor committee, Julian Leavitt.

"I would even go so far as to say that the United States department of justice should have the power to assume control of this institution, as a matter of social sanitation, in precisely the same manner that the United States public health service takes charge of pestiferous areas where the local authorities are unwilling or unable to exercise proper control," declared Mr. Leavitt today in discussing the matter.

"Delaware clings to the old systems. And these are its by-products: First, it produces embittered, hopeless, confirmed criminals. The leading industry in this particular prison is the making of boys' knickerbockers for a private concern. Now, outside of prison, this trade, like most 'needle trades,' is largely in the hands of women. This means that the discharged prisoner finds himself without a trade, without means and without friends on the day of his release. Weakness by prison food and indoor confinement, he is unfit to compete with free men, and must revert to crime. Who knows what quota Delaware is contributing to the criminal population of its neighboring states?"

"Second, the Newcastle workhouse is, like all contract prisons, a hotbed of tuberculosis and other specific prison diseases. Yet we know, on the basis of official report, that in the year 1904, and probably in each of the years following, the prisons turned out about 50,000 pairs of boys' knickerbockers, all of which were sold outside the state of Delaware. This means that during the last eight years this institution exported, nearly a half million of these garments through interstate commerce channels. Who knows how many innocent boys throughout the land fell victims of infections to these goods?"

"Third, many of the prisoners are bachelors and fathers. Who is supporting their dependent wives and children? The state of Delaware does nothing for them. What quota does it add thereby?"

MOTHER LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels and you will have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!--Adv.

to the general burden of prostitution, dependency and crime?

"These three counts alone prove that the Delaware prison, as organized today, is an interstate nuisance and should either be cleaned or abolished."

GUARDING AGAINST CROUP.

The best safeguard against croup is a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in the house. P. H. Gina, Middleton, Ind., writes: "My children are very susceptible to croup, easily catch cold, I get them Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and in every instance they get prompt relief and are soon cured. We keep it at home and prevent croup." Dreyer Drug Co.--Adv.

The Daven-o

The dictionary of popular opinion says the word "DAVEN-O" means the highest grade upholstered davenport, having concealed within it a genuine metal bed.

This remarkable invention stands alone in the world as a successful combination of bed and davenport, with absolutely no sacrifice of appearance or comfort either.

Remember the points that make it different from all others:

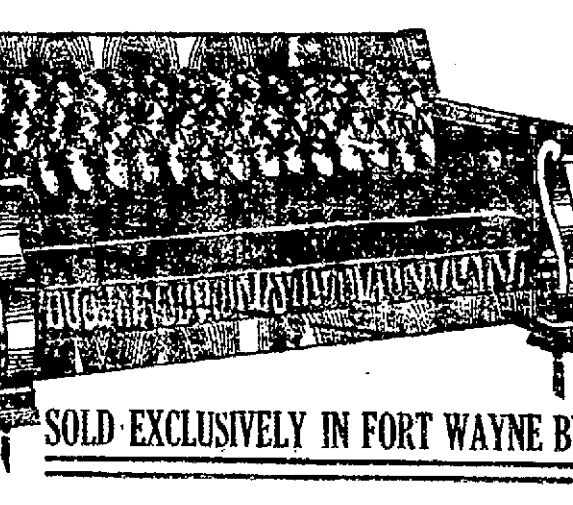

- 1--Working parts--nothing but a hinge. Cannot get out of order.
- 2--You do not sleep on the upholstery, but on regular springs with thick mattress.
- 3--It is not to be made up at night, but in the morning, like any other bed.
- 4--All bed clothes, even pillows, are retained in bed, not stored away.
- 5--The bed part is made entirely of metal--therefore, perfectly sanitary.

A thousand other advantages will come to your mind as you look at it and compare it with other makes.

MADE ANOTHER REQUISITION

Decatur Shops Draw Upon Fort Wayne for Seventy-Four Men.

G. I. A. TO B. L. E.

HAS ELECTION

Puts Mrs. M. G. Walker at the Head of the Roster—Shop News.

The third requisition upon the local Wabash shops for men to operate the new shops at Decatur was made today and it involved fifteen machinists, twelve boiler-makers, three blacksmiths, two pipefitters, one painter, one carpenter, thirty-nine helpers and one apprentice, making a total of seventy-four. Previous requisitions amounted to about 175, making the number dropped from the pay rolls of the local works about 250, or about 45 per cent. of the original force. All of the men let out here were given the privilege of going to Decatur, but not all accepted it, preferring to remain in Fort Wayne and take chances at getting employment in some other shops. The men dropped from the list today can go to Decatur and most of them will go there, but there are a few who will remain here and seek other employment. The men affected today are:

Machinists—Joseph Markey, Ed Yorgens, D. J. Lynch, C. M. Kahoe, A. E. Swain, Roy Sponbauer, J. N. Hass, J. Haffner, H. W. Spiegel, J. W. Monges, E. J. Wegmiller, J. J. McLaughlin, A. Hibler, A. THINKS OUTLOOK GOOD.

O. O. Thwing, of Western Gas, Talks on Situation.

O. O. Thwing, chief engineer and manager of the Western Gas Construction company, who recently returned from a business trip to the east, can see nothing more serious than temporary inconvenience in the present financial depression. He thinks, and industrial and other business interests will revive. Speaking of the company's affairs Mr. Thwing said: "We have just completed a complete gas plant at Perry, Iowa, and are now erecting a large amount of special apparatus for the New Jersey Zinc company, of Palmerton, Pa. We are now shipping a complete coal gas plant to the North Carolina Pulp and Paper company, of Greensboro, N. C. We have just delivered a water gas plant at Columbia, Mo., on which we will start erection at once. We have an order for a water gas plant for Lebanon, Ohio, now going through the shops. We also have on hand sufficient work to keep the shop running three months. Concerning the rumor of a reduction of the force, Mr. Thwing said: "We were behind with work for awhile and we hired a larger force than usual and also ran overtime. When we caught up we simply let the surplus force go and are now endeavoring to run the works only during the days. We find night work inefficient and unprofitable and will do no more of it than necessary."

NEUFER GOES TO FLORIDA.

Lieutenant of Pennsylvania Police Gets Nice Office.

Lieutenant John M. Neuffer, of the Pennsylvania police department, has tendered his resignation, effective next Saturday. He has accepted the office of division special agent of the Seaboard Air Line railroad, with headquarters at Tampa, Fla., on which line D. S. Ward is the chief special agent. Eight years ago Mr. Ward was inspector of police for the Pennsylvania and he became well acquainted with Lieutenant Neuffer and familiar with his capabilities in the detective line. Lieutenant Neuffer has been connected with the Pennsylvania police department fourteen years. Two years of that service was in the capacity of a lieutenant. Capt. Henry Stoll has announced a successor to Lieutenant Neuffer.

AUXILIARY ELECTION.

Mrs. M. J. Walker Elected President by Friendship Division.

Friendship division, No. 18, Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, held its annual election in R. L. E. hall yesterday afternoon. The following was the result. Insurance secretary, Mrs. Harry Tourgeon; past president, Mrs. C. C. Adams; president, Mrs. M. J. Walker; vice president, Mrs. W. Ferguson; secretary, Mrs. Grant Rhodes; treasurer, Mrs. Chester Durnell; chaplain, Mrs. Robert Cowen; guide, Mrs. Frank Rogers; sentinel, Mrs. Harry Polhamus; trustees, Mrs. C. C. Adams, Mrs. Daniel Grubb and Mrs. Frank Mills. Installation will take place the first meeting in January.

TWO SHOPMEN INJURED.

Two employees at the Fort Wayne Electric works were injured yesterday sufficiently to require the attention of Dr. Schultz, the company's surgeon, and to put them out of commission for a week or so. Earl Brandon was struck on the back of his right hand by a boring machine tool. A big gash, which opened a blood vessel and caused a bad hemorrhage, was the result. James Auld, the other victim, had the little finger of his right hand crushed when a drilling jig fell upon it.

RECORD BREAKING RUN.

One of the men who has been at the throttle thirty-five years and still retains the "nerve" to drive a locomotive to the limit of its speed is Engineer William H. Gales. Yesterday, with fifteen heavily laden cars and Mr. Gales at the throttle, Pennsylvania train No. 17 covered the distance between Crestline and Fort Wayne in two hours and forty minutes, including two minutes stop at Lima. He had K-2 engine, No. 7175, and Charles Spindler was the fireman.

CALLED TO FATHER'S BEDSIDE.

Machinist M. J. Crowe, of the Pennsylvania erecting shop, left last night for Renova upon the receipt of a telegram stating that his father was lying at the point of death at the family home in that city. The sick man is a machinist in the Pennsylvania shops at Renova.

SAFETY COMMITTEE MEETING.

The Pennsylvania safety committee held a meeting in the committee rooms back of the planing mills today. It was the regular monthly meeting and nothing of especial interest came before it.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

J. Laughlin, H. E. Anspach and H. J. Wright, Pennsylvania shopmen, are sick and off duty.

Yard Engineer G. M. Crass, of the Pennsylvania, was taken ill while on duty last night.

Ralph Gelsa, of the Pennsylvania shop clerk's office, is preparing for a visit with friends in Chicago.

O. J. Baals, storekeeper at the Pennsylvania round house, is sick and has not been able to work for a week.

Carl Miller, Pennsylvania round house messenger reported for duty this morning after being on the sick list several days.

Master Mechanic G. W. Smith is in Springfield and Division Storekeeper C. E. Dale is in St. Louis on business for the Wabash.

Alfred Walker, head waiter at the Wellington cafe, has gone to his old home, London, Ontario, to spend a two weeks' vacation.

Engineer C. E. Misner has been assigned to the runs on the Pennsylvania, Nos. 9 and 18, so long handled by Engineer Michael Laughlin, who has been retired.

General Manager A. Z. Polhamus, of S. F. Bowers & Co., is in British Columbia on business for the company. He will visit the coast cities in California before he returns home.

W. J. Burton, well known among railroad men as a life and accident insurance agent, has been called to the headquarters at Chicago to prepare for the work of an adjuster of claims, a much more lucrative office than the one he has occupied for several years. He will have headquarters in Chicago.

Machinist L. H. Keller, of the Pennsylvania round house, is in the hospital. About a year ago he was hurt while at work in the back shop and recently the limb that was hurt began to cause trouble and developed an abscess. This, when opened, was found to contain a piece of metal deposited there a year ago. He has been off duty a week.

BECOMES "WET-DRY" CONTEST.

Democratic Primary in Adams County Arouses Bitter Feeling.

Decatur, Ind., Dec. 4.—The "wet" and "dry" features have crept in to the ranks of the Adams county democrats to such an extent that the primary election next Friday will be a bitter fight between the two factions. William Archbold, elected to the office of county treasurer a year ago, will take his office next January. He is now a candidate for re-nomination and re-election but because he is affiliated closely with the "dry" forces and has been a worker with the "drys," the center of the primary fight, is directed against him. It is customary to give all officers serving a two-year term the second term, but this is being opposed in Archbold's case, and bitter feeling has been aroused in the contest. The same conditions exist in the races for county commissioners. On the eve of the primary there is more interest taken than before a general election.

PURDUE ALUMNI MEETING.

Members Will Enjoy a Feast at the Wayne Hotel.

Fort Wayne members of the Purdue Alumni association will meet this evening at the Wayne hotel. Arrangements have been made for a feast and following the banquet they will hear addresses on the subject of city beautification.

Worked in Cab 40 Years

Michael Laughlin, whose portrait appears above, is one of the many faithful employees of the Pennsylvania who have reached the age of seventy years and have been retired on a pension. Mr. Laughlin is a native of Ireland, but has lived in America ever since he was a lad of eight or ten years. The family settled in the farming districts of Ohio and for a number of years resided in Preble county. Mr. Laughlin became a fireman on the Western division of the Pennsylvania April 17, 1873, when wood-burning engines were the rule. In those days there was no road foreman of engines and the master mechanic had charge of the engineers and the firemen and Mr. Laughlin applied to and was given employment by Master Mechanic J. M. Boone. He was promoted to engineer February 5, 1881, and ten years later was advanced to preferred freight and then to passenger service. Speaking about Engineer Laughlin's capabilities, Road Foreman of Engines C. R. Colmey said: "Mr. Laughlin is a good, reliable man and in handling the air brake, there are none better than he. I have heard conductors who were out on the road with him say that he brought the train to a standstill without any perceptible jar at any time. That was in the days when the air brake was comparatively new and experts at handling it were scarce."

It is said that this feature of his work and his even and jovial disposition made Mr. Laughlin a very popular engineer; that the conductors, brakemen and firemen all wanted to get in his crew. For a number of years Engineer Laughlin had charge of an engine on trains Nos. 9 and 18, between this city and Chicago. The only time during his long service that Engineer Laughlin was injured was about three years ago, when an explosion of a pipe in the cab severely scalded one of his eyes. He was disabled several months then and has experienced more or less pain and trouble from the wound since. Mr. Laughlin is the father of twelve children; nine of whom are living.

Bristol Man Brings Suit to Enjoin Village Officers.

Goshen, Ind., Dec. 4.—The little town of Bristol was further torn by factional strife today when Andrew J. Mengos brought injunction proceedings against Clyde W. Hilbish, clerk; Earl Merritt, treasurer, and John W. Mitchell, trustees, to prevent the payment of public construction of cement sidewalks. Mengos charges the board of trustees had conspired against him, together with other Bristol property owners. An injunction to prevent the carrying out of plans to provide a new town hall for Bristol is pending in court here. The old hall was sold and removed from the site and now the town is without quarters. It has become necessary to call the sheriff several times to quell factional fights in the town. In the recent election the anti-improvement candidates were successful, the existing administration being rebuked.

HOLDS INDIAN TO BLAME.

Responsibility for Cubist Art is Placed at Red Man's Door.

Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 4.—Credit of responsibility for the organization of cubist art is claimed for the American Indian by Lora Star, art instructor in the United States Indian service, who is stationed here. Lora Star, with his wife, Anna Deora, a beautiful Winnebago Indian girl, who also an artist, has devoted many years to the study and collection of Indian art specimens and they have many examples to substantiate their assertion that the Indians founded the cubist school some two years ago.

The eagle, which is a common figure in Indian art specimens, is but a square which is shaped to resemble an eagle, yet immediately impresses the observer with the conviction that it is an eagle.

PRINCIPALS MEET.

Decide to Enter Children in the Story Contest.

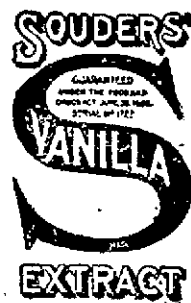

It was decided yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the principals of the city schools to let the children write on the subject "Tuberculosis" for their December compositions. Every paper will be graded and the best written story from each class will be sent to Superintendent Study, who in turn will send it to the state board at Indianapolis.

It was also definitely decided that all the schools in the city shall close Wednesday noon, Dec. 24, for the holiday vacation and open on Monday, Jan. 5, 1914.

When Theodore Titus, the retired Pennsylvania engineer, reached his home last night, after being summoned from the home of his son, Engineer Charles H. Titus, where he had gone to spend the evening, he found the house filled with friends who had assembled to pay their respects to him and to congratulate him upon his arrival at the seventy-fifth mile stone on life's highway. Before Mr. Titus recovered from the surprise R. A. Philley, speaking in behalf of all, presented him with a handsome chair. The company remained until a late hour and were unanimous in the sentiment that they were well entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Titus, assisted by Miss Anna Philley, who gave several recitations. Among the guests were Messrs. and Mesdames A. A. Hower, L. E. Bower, Alex. Bower, C. H. Platt, A. D. Craig, E. T. Estery, C. M. Menefee, H. Neasel, H. A. Philley, Theodore Weaver, A. W. JUST CAME OVER BUT WILL LEARN

"Haw; I Say Old Top the Berths Are Rummy and Small," He Says.

HEADED FOR MEXICO

Pittsburg, Dec. 1.—Officials around the Pennsylvania station are laughing over the story told by one of the conductors on a through train who had a little experience with a young Englishman on his way to Mexico. Reginald was typically British and evidently off his native heath for the first time in his life. He had landed from the liner in the forenoon, in New York, and was taking the first evening train for the southwest. Therefore he was not in the least familiar with the intricacies of the up-to-date steel sleeping car.

"Rummy little diggings" was what he said when shown his berth, and the net for his clothing catching his eye, he "bawled" and exclaimed: "Clever idea; to catch me if I fall out of bed, what?" But it was in the morning that his troubles began. Like most untraveled Britisheers, he did not like to ask questions and he did not want to wake a fuss, when he awoke and found that he did not have much time until the train would be in Pittsburg, he tried to figure a way to make his toilet in his "rummy little diggings." He found it impossible. Like Columbus breaking the egg to stand it on end, he cut the Gordian knot by stepping boldly into the aisle in his sleeping clothes and started to dress from his sox upward and outward.

Most of the other passengers were up and sitting around and the calm indifference of the Britisheer, stripped almost to "the buff" in their midst, caused a little whirlpool of panic—especially among the women. One woman wanted to know, rather aggressively, what he meant. He smiled affably through the neckband of his shirt, as it slipped over his head, and asked: "Well, by Jove! Tell me how you put on your trousers in your berth?"

This answer resulted in a call for the conductor who tells the story, but, by the time he arrived, the Britisheer was more than half dressed and fairly presentable.

He got out his shaving material, propped his mirror in the upper berth and calmly proceeded to turn the sleeping car into a barber shop.

"He'll learn better before he gets down among the greasers," concluded the conductor.

ARRESTS SISTER AS A LOITERER

Touching Scene Follows Action by Policeman at Indianapolis.

WEEPS AT SLATING

Indianapolis, Dec. 4.—Patrolman Parvin Miller yesterday afternoon arrested his sister, Mrs. Norman Goodperle, 24 years old, 1532 Brightwood avenue, charging her with having accosted Charles Abrams, a young man, 421 East Twenty-first street. Miller watched his sister accost Abrams, he says, and then made the arrest. The charge against Mrs. Goodperle is loitering. Abrams also was arrested.

Miller led his sister and Abrams to police headquarters and slated them himself. While he was slating his sister he broke down and cried.

The brother and sister enacted a touching scene in the offices of the police matron while the woman was answering necessary questions. Mrs. Goodperle pleaded with her brother to allow her to go free.

Miller refused to talk of the arrest after it had been made. Mrs. Goodperle said, however, that her brother had objected to her separation from her husband, which occurred some time ago. She said that since that time her brother had asserted repeatedly that he would cause her arrest. She said that Abrams spoke to her as she passed him on the street and that she paid no attention to him. Mrs. Goodperle is an attractive looking woman.

Matron Grogire was touched by the story told by Mrs. Goodperle and by the scene in her office. After the brother, who asked that a high bond be placed against his sister, had departed, the bond was reduced to $15 and Mrs. Goodperle was released.

Coffee Drinking

Coffee isn't a food. Anything not a food which is taken into the system makes the eliminative processes work overtime to throw it off. Often the unprofitable thing, when taken regularly, accumulates faster than it can be eliminated, and becomes a destroyer.

Besides, coffee contains caffeine, a subtle, poisonous drug—about 2 1/2 grains to the cup. It is well known that caffeine frequently causes heart trouble, nervousness, sleeplessness and biliousness—serious handicaps to progress and comfort.

If something is hindering your efforts, try the simple test of leaving off coffee ten days and using Postum.

If after a few days you begin to feel better—sleep well, nerves steady up and brain gets clear, you will know how to avoid that kind of trouble.

Postum, made only of prime wheat and a small percent. of New Orleans molasses, is a pure food-drink—wholesome, nourishing and delicious. It is absolutely free from caffeine or any other drug.

Postum now comes in two forms.

Regular Postum—Must be well boiled to bring out its delightful flavour and food value.

Instant Postum—(The new form) is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful stirred in a cup of hot water makes a delicious beverage instantly. Add sugar and cream to taste.

THE MARKETS

LOCAL MARKETS.

NO CHANGE IN PRICES.
124 Loads of Hay Have Arrived in This City During Past Four Days.

Receipts on the local market have been very light for the past few days as the farmers and it is a hard task to bring their produce to the city. Although the roads were not in a favorable condition this morning, many more than usual brought their produce to the market.

Wholesale men and retailers made no changes in the prices and they predict no advance. If anything, the prices will make a small drop. Even the price of eggs, it is believed, will fall as the supply seems to be getting better.

Hay is arriving in the city in great quantities, thirty loads being reported by the city commissioners as having arrived today up to noon. This makes a total of 124 loads of hay that have been weighed at the city scales during the first four days in December.

PIONEER INDIAN ACTOR ON STAGE TO GET AN EDUCATION.

WHITE EAGLE, AMERICA'S PIONEER SINGING INDIAN ACTOR.

San Francisco, Dec. 4.—White Eagle, the pioneer singing Indian and character actor of America—that is, what is printed on the card he hands you. He will tell you he is the only Indian actor! By that he means he can run the entire gamut of the theatrical profession, from grand to comic opera, from drama to comedy. He does fifteen character impersonations without changing his make-up and has played all the theaters of the country, "big time" and "small time"—and all to gain education.

White Eagle, or, in Spanish, Aguila Blanco, is a Yaquis Indian. Born in the Yaquis valley, state of Sonora, Mexico, he came to the United States when a year old and hasn't been back since. "My people have been downtrodden for 300 years," said White Eagle. "I should go back to the Yaquis valley with my knowledge of freedom and fair government. I would be considered a 'bad hombre' by the Mexican authorities and it would be either 'Leg Fuego' or a dove wall and a firing squad for me."

White Eagle was an Indian scout in the Bear Paw mountains in the early '80's and made his debut from the saddle to the stage. He began in musical comedy—sang-lyric tenor. During the Spanish-American war

White Eagle served in the Cuban campaign and was in the thickest of the fighting—El Caney, San Juan hill and Santiago. He went down with yellow fever and was sent back to New York. When he recovered his voice was gone. "Doctors told me the only thing that would give my voice back to me would be salt air, so I went to sea and spent six years before the mast. I recovered my voice completely and went on the stage."

While Eagle's specialty is demonstrating the civilized Indian. "I do several sad acts," he said, "but I realize that people have sorrow enough without pining for more so I keep inside comedy. I was not lured to the stage by the glare of the footlights or the glint of gold. It was education I was seeking, and I am finding it, too. Washington Irving, one of America's most famous authors, got his education from observation; that's the way I am getting mine."

ADMIRERS SIXTY YEARS; WED.

Couple Recently Married in Texas Are Both Past Seventy.

Coleman, Tex., Dec. 4.—J. H. Sanders and Mrs. E. W. Neenan, both in their seventies, married here the other day. Justice of the Peace White officiating. Both bride and bridegroom are members of the Primitive Baptist church and their courtship and marriage was a church romance.

They had been admirers of each other for sixty years and had been neighbors. They have been residents of this (Coleman) county since its organization. Both are vigorous for their age and declare they are just as happy as if they had married many years ago—and Sanders said at the wedding, "It's better late than never."

"MOVIE" SHOW ON WHEELS.

Automobile Carries Amusement to the Rural Districts.

Chehalis, Wash., Dec. 4.—A moving picture show, transported about the country on a small automobile, was the attraction recently at a local garage. The man and woman in charge hailed from Seattle and are using this method of seeing the country and making a living. In front of the auto they have a small dynamo which is run by the engine on the automobile, thus affording electric current with which to furnish the light and power for operating the machine. They make a specialty of visiting the smaller places, which have no movies, and report good business this far.

WOMEN ARGUE AGAINST VOTE

Opponents of Suffrage Appear Before Rules Committee of House.

CALL MOVE SPORADIC

Washington, Dec. 4.—Opponents of woman suffrage appeared before the house rules committee today to argue that a committee on woman suffrage should not be elected.

The delegation marched to the house building in a body. In that respect they followed the plan of the national American Woman Suffrage association which yesterday sent a delegation of nearly 1,000 women to present the suffragist side of the argument to the rules committee.

It was contended that the suffrage movement was sporadic in its nature and that the ballot was not wanted by as many women as the suffragists declare. It was denied that the suffragist movement had grown to such proportions as to demand a committee.

Suffragist sympathizers had been warned by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of their association, to remain away from the hearing room and give their undivided attention to the business of the suffrage convention to which they had been sent as delegates.

The list of anti-suffrage speakers today included Mrs. E. H. Talbot, of Ohio; Miss Alice Hill, of Connecticut; Mrs. Robert Garrett, of New York; Mrs. Francis Redwood, of Maryland; Mrs. A. J. George, and Charles J. Underhill, of Massachusetts; Joseph G. Pyles, of Minnesota; Miss Emily Bissell, of Delaware; Miss Minnie Bronson, of Iowa; Mrs. E. J. Goodwin, and Mrs. O. D. Oliphant, of New Jersey; Miss Lucy J. Price, of Ohio; Dr. Lucy Banister, and Miss Ella A. Abell, of New York; Miss Ella L. Dorsey, and Miss Ella Brehaut, of Washington; Miss Duck, New Jersey; Miss Harding, and Miss Helt, Pittsburgh; and Miss Elizabeth McCracken, of Massachusetts.

Discussion of a budget and of a new constitution for the National American Woman Suffrage association, the sending of a committee to urge President Wilson to send a message to congress asking immediate consideration of a woman suffrage amendment and election of officers for the ensuing year, were the features of today's program of the convention in forty-fifth annual session here.

Debate over the adoption of a new constitution centered around the proposed method of raising the money among the state and other affiliated organizations to carry on the work of the national body. The state's rights question was involved in the discussion, many of the delegates fearing that state and federal suffrage bodies would be weakened if the national organization were allowed to secure its money as proposed.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The library of congress now contains 2,128,555 books and pamphlets, there having been added during 1913, 115,802 volumes, a record but twice exceeded in the last fifteen years. SMUGGING GOES FORWARD.

But Desperado Lopez May Have Escaped From Mine Tomb.

Bingham, Utah, Dec. 4.—The smudging of the Utah-Apex mine in which Ralph Lopez, slayer of six men, took refuge just a week ago, continued today with the likelihood that not until tomorrow would the fire be allowed to die down. The belief grew that the desperado had escaped from the mine which was meant to be his tomb. The pursuit of Lopez began Nov. 21 after he had killed a fellow countryman. The chief of police and four deputy sheriffs have since fallen before his rifle.

MAY SUPPLANT FINGER PRINT.

New York, Dec. 4.—The finger print method for the identification of criminals may be some day supplanted by photographing the veins of the hand, according to Prof. Tanassia, of the University of Padua, Italy. He is quoted in advocacy of the new plan declaring that the merest novice can detect variations in the veins of the hand while long training is necessary to distinguish difference in finger prints.

William Dick, who was forced to carry the bandit from the city in his automobile, told the police that the robber leaped from the machine near Morris and disappeared in the woods after firing a shot at his chauffeur.

BRET HARTE STILL IN DEMAND.

Los Angeles Circulation Man Asks for More "Descriptive Matter."

Eureka, Cal., Dec. 4.—Although half a century has passed since the late Bret Harte began his career in literature on the Humboldt Times, of this city, that paper is in possession of a letter address to him and written a few days ago by E. W. Smalley of Santa Ana, Cal., one of the circulation agents of a Los Angeles newspaper.

Smalley writes to "Editor Bret Harte" that it was with pleasure he had read "descriptive matter pertaining to your valley," and asks for more of it.

Bret Harte has not been on the Pacific coast in a generation. He died in London, whether his fame had extended, some years before it reached Santa Ana.

MONKEYS MAKE FAILURE OF IT.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 5.—An attempt to imitate their caretakers' operation of an oil heating stove cost the lives of nine monkeys and resulted in the destruction of the shelter house at Riverside park today. The monkeys had been housed in the shelter house until their permanent winter quarters were ready. In some manner they opened the door of their cage and began playing with the oil stove. The stove exploded, setting fire to the house. The monkeys were burned to death before they could be rescued. The loss is estimated at $24,000.

Many Women Saw Pretty Entertainment in Mizpah Temple.

Hundreds of women crowded themselves into Mizpah temple yesterday afternoon to see a reproduction of the kindergarten festival which teachers of the public school kindergartens and the children gave first time in Mizpah hall during the recent Congress of Mothers held in this city. It was for the reason that the majority of mothers failed to see the first entertainment that Miss Calmerton and Supt. Study of the public schools arranged to have the performance repeated. The Masques were kind and granted the use of their hall. A small admission was charged in order that there should be no needless crowding of the hall. The children were taken from the schoolhouses in trucks and conveyed to the hall. The performance was as pretty as before and everyone was delighted with it.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

Pavlowa and Symphony Orchestra Tomorrow Night.

The present tour of the great Pavlowa, who comes to this city on Saturday evening, will be a triumphal march by reason of the fact that wherever the famous dancer appears she will be confronted with unmistakable evidence of the artistic appreciation her influence has wrought since she first came to this country three years ago. Prior to that time the art of the dance received little serious consideration, but the super-sensitization created by the incomparable Pavlowa lifted it out of its decadent state to a position of importance heretofore unattained. To say that the dance has come to stay is to state a fact, not a prophecy, and Anna Pavlowa is directly responsible for the intense interest displayed today in the art of dancing.

Pavlowa will be assisted on her trans-continental tour by the biggest organization of its kind ever assembled. The company all told will number about a hundred persons, including a complete symphony orchestra under the leadership of Theodore Stier. The corps de ballet will number about a hundred persons, and its personnel will be made up of beautiful as well as the most proficient executants in the imperial ballets of Moscow and St. Petersburg. There will also be a dozen special solo dancers, all highly accomplished, each a star. Also there will be M. Novikoff, the greatest man dancer of this generation; M. Zaitchik, the greatest of all character dancers, and M. Orzechowski, the greatest living mime or pantomime dancer.

Pavlowa's repertoire is comprehensive and her program will be varied and novel. Her offerings will be representative of the very best in terpsichorean art. She will run the gamut of the most attractive measures ever devised, from the traditional classic ballet to the most modern and popular dances. The appeal of Pavlowa is to all because it is the appeal of perfection to humanity. This from the London (England) Standard seems to epitomize the genius of this peerless danseuse. Cultivated taste is not essential for appreciation of the artistry of Pavlowa. She interprets in a language all her own a beauty that is understood by everybody, and her every move, gesture and expression personifies eloquence. In short, she is a revelation at all times and seems more wonderful every time she is seen.

"The Garden of Allah" Coming Soon.

The much written about and generally discussed "Garden of Allah" will begin an engagement of one week at the Majestic starting Dec. 15 with matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

Little is left unsaid about this spectacle that ran for so long in New York and repeated its success on tour. Everyone knows the narrative upon which the

IF YOU HAVE YOUTH DRESS SIMPLY.

Says Mme. Cecile Dillen.

If you are under 30 don't make the mistake of dressing elaborately. The little black suit I am showing you is made of corduroy which is very fashionable this season. The skirt is plain, with two round tails at the back lined with kings blue satin. The jacket is cut away from the bust and follows the contour of the torso on the skirt.

The waistcoat is of white silk embroidered in king's blue. This suit can be worn, as our grandmothers used to say, "to mill or to meet." It is suitable for any occasion and particularly good taste for the young girl who can afford but one new winter costume.

The other frock is quite as simple and quite as stylish as the black corduroy. It is of very dark red wool crepe made with the new "repli," which means the "catching" up of the skirt so that the upper part bulges out over the lower.

The "repli" is just now being used more than the lampshade tunic and it is more graceful.

AT THE EMPRESS

Tonight occurs the tango contest for amateur dancers on the stage of the Empress theater and this novel contest bids fair of drawing the biggest house of the season. Already the seat sale is heavy, the local lodge of Buffaloes sending a delegation 100 strong to greet the Rossow Midgets, both members of that order. The dancing contest will be staged immediately following the first performance, so that it occurs practically between the two shows. There is a possibility of at least a dozen couples taking party. The winning couple will be awarded $10 in gold.

Saturday afternoon ever child attending the matinee will be presented with a novel toy by the Rossow Midgets. The two little men will be at the door taking tickets and distributing the toys and welcoming the children. There is but one matinee on Saturday, it starting at 2:30 o'clock.

The quality of the current bill is fully established and next week will bring another smashing sextette of acts to the Empress.

STREET ETIQUETTE.

Smoking When in Company of Ladies Not Good Form.

When one man and two women are walking together on the street all together, it is proper for the man to walk in the middle or nearest the curb?

The answer is always nearest the curb. Of course, this is rather hard on the second girl, as it leaves her more or less out of the conversation; but etiquette demands that the man walk next the curb whenever he accompanies a woman.

The reason underlying this is a sensible one. Any danger which may come to the pedestrian is apt to come from the street, and therefore a man, who is woman's natural protector, should be nearest the street, or next to the curb, to guard her against danger. If he is sandwiched between the two women he is little or no use.

Another point which puzzles a good many women and about which there should be no doubt—at least as far as New York is concerned—is the question of whether or not it is permissible for a man to smoke when walking on the street with a woman. It is decidedly bad manners to do so. Different communities may have different ideas but in so far as this metropolis is concerned, smoking on the street while with a woman is not considered good form. Some men are careless in this respect, and if a young woman's escort lights a cigarette or cigar while they are walking together, she is quite within her rights to ask him to throw it away. Of course she should do so in a tactful and pleasant way, explaining that she does not consider it quite respectful to her for a man to smoke when walking with her on the street.

ALL ABOUT BLOUSES.

Most of the new blouses here in New York are cut away at the neck, in spite of coming winter and cold weather. Some of them have fronts which open to the waist, the chest being crossed by a chemise. The top of this is on a line with the upper part of the arms, about two inches down from the shoulders. This cutaway blouse is an unbecoming exaggeration of a very becoming fashion. To show the neck is always pretty, when the owner of the neck is young and not too thin. To show the chest in outdoor dress is just the "little more" that spoils the whole. Every inch of chest shown detracts from the charm of the face.

At the tango dances some of the chests exhibited are rough and red, owing to exposure during the fitful weather of the last two months, bright sunshine scorching the skin and rude winds roughening it. As dancing is to be more in fashion than ever during the

ROYAL

The Standard for Baking Powders the World Over is an Absolutely Pure, Cream of Tartar Baking Powder

CREAM OF TARTAR is the crystallized acid of grapes refined to absolute purity and ground to a creamy flour. It is declared by physicians the most wholesome of all fruit acids, and has been proved by long and universal experience the most efficient and satisfactory for baking purposes.

Highly refined products of the grape, properly combined with bicarbonate of soda and a little corn starch to absorb atmospheric moisture, are the sole ingredients of the ideal, high-class, standard baking powder.

Many acids have been tried during the last hundred years to find a substitute for the grape cream of tartar which would cost less. In recent years alum, which makes a baking powder at a cost of two cents a pound, has been used because of its trifling cost. Alum, however, has been disapproved by scientific chemists and physicians and is not employed by manufacturers of high-class powders.

Cream of tartar powders being healthful themselves, add to the healthfulness of the food.
